

EDITORIAL

THE WAY usually-nice students have been looking at ACORN editors since the last issue shouldn't happen to a dog.

We are anti-fascist, ergo, the sentiment is, we are communists—under direct orders from Moscow—or tools in the hands of some red ASU. One would think we had suggested bombing the college, or killing off all the nasty Republicans.

Honest, all we anarchists wanted to do was to raise a little money on campus to aid people in China, Germany, and Spain.

Who needs aid in China? Certainly not the Japanese. Who needs aid in Germany? Not the Nazis. Who needs aid in Spain? All right, we'll concede a point, the unfortunate victims on both sides. But you know where most of the bombs are falling.

Now, is that so bad?

THE ACORN had one and only one objective in its last issue: to raise funds to aid starving, injured, or refugee, men, women, and children.

As it has turned out we might better not have printed a mercy issue and turned over the cost of its printing instead to some relief agency. We were young and foolish enough to think that the cost of an issue would be insignificant compared to the amounts it might cause to be raised among students.

Imagine: 400 students, 10 cents each a week, total: $40; ten weeks, $400. Sheer pipe dreams!

So let's eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow they may die.

Rules Of Conduct For B. C. Students

A Joint Statement of the Student Council and Faculty

A Brothers College student is always a gentleman. He is matriculated in the College only on the condition that any lapses from gentlemanly conduct will render him liable to disciplinary action which may include dismissal from the College.

Specifically, the student should guide his conduct by the following considerations:

1. Entertainment of women in dormitories. Regulation of the entertainment of women guests in dormitory rooms is by request of the student body left to the discretion of the students, who pledge themselves to observe the best traditions of the College in this regard. The students agree that those who bring undesirable criticism upon women guests or upon the College shall be subject to disciplinary action which may involve dismissal from the College. The faculty and the Student Disciplinary Authority will be guided in such action by the following considerations none of which is imposed as a rule: chaperonage, the presence of other students and their guests, and the hour. In general the students should exercise the greatest discretion after the dinner hour.
2. Use of alcoholic beverages. In the use of alcoholic beverages the student will, while he is on the campus, be governed by the rules enjoined by the University authorities.
3. Lewdness. A gentleman is never lewd either in word or deed.
4. General Considerations. The student will of course remember that the three specific considerations listed above are by no means the only criteria by which his conduct will be judged.

Acorn Has New Format To Save Time and Money

At a meeting of THE ACORN staff last Friday it was decided to publish this issue and the next one in January, the last two of the semester, in an abbreviated single-sheet format.

The editor announced this policy as imperative to conserve both money and time. It is hoped that with the second semester the paper will resume its old size, pending extensive reorganization and re-allocation of work.

Katz, Rabbi Liebman Discuss Nazis, Jews

Exile Tells State of Reich, Rabbi Speaks On Judeo-Christian Amity

Judaism and Jewish persecution was the theme of two addresses last Thursday when the university heard addresses by Rabbi Joshua Loth Liebman of Chicago and Dr. Rudolf Katz, former president of the City Council of Altona, Germany, and now an exile.

Rabbi Liebman, who is a graduate of Hebrew Union College and now spiritual leader of the K. A. M. Temple in Chicago, praised the aid Christianity has given the Jews. "American Christianity," he said, "has done more than it has realized in its mutual understanding of difficulties, in its aid in the present crisis, and in its moral revulsion. . . . It has given the average Jew renewed faith in mankind."

Reasons for Anti-Semitism

Liebman said that the reasons for anti-Jewish prejudices are varied. "The Jew has been a minority group throughout history and much of the misunderstanding has originated in the sociological phenomena of xenophobia—fear of the stranger, a dislike of the unlike. . . . Israel has been different. It is not a question of inferiority or superiority, but of otherness."

Speaking later in Baldwin Hall, Dr. Katz, an anti-Nazi, said that Hitler, whom he considers "the greatest political figure of the 20th century," and a leader whom future authorities will rank as the equal of Napoleon or Bismarck, has "made the worst mistake of his career through his recent persecution of the Jews."

Anti-Semitism Higher in U. S.

Dr. Katz said that the outstanding reason for the Jewish persecutions is to gain money for the state. "The Catholic Church will be attacked next to gain an added source of revenue for Hitler's regime," he stated. The whole anti-Jewish movement in Germany, said Katz, is "artificial." "The average of anti-semitism is lower in Germany even now than the anti-semitic feeling in the United States."

Christmas Holiday Begins

Christmas vacation begins next Wednesday, December 21, at 6 p.m. Classes will resume at 7:50 a.m. Tuesday, January 3.

Varsity Club Holds Banquet Saturday

Will Present Wegener Award; Bendel, Sports Scribe, Others, To Speak

Expanding greatly during the past five years, the Varsity Club will hold its annual banquet at Day's Restaurant, Morristown, Saturday evening, at seven o'clock. The affair is expected to attract the largest gathering of Green and Gold lettermen since the inception of the club.

Fred Bendel, well-known sports writer of the Newark Evening News, will be the featured speaker. Moving pictures of the year's greatest sports thrills and athletes will be shown.

The Albert Ben Wegener Award—a substantial cash award—will be presented to the Brothers College student, who, during the past year, has combined excellence in scholastic and athletic activities and who personifies the "full man" among students of Brothers College. Ralph Eskesen of Madison won this award last year.

Included among the speakers of the evening are: Dean Frank G. Lankard, Dr. Louis C. Jordy, Dr. Norman M. Guy of the seminary, and Dr. T. I. Northup of Morristown.

Rose Library Almost Ready for Occupancy

Interior Finishings Proceed Apace In Hope of January Moving

From outside appearances the new $500,000 Rose Memorial Library nears completion, but an inspection of the interior of the building reveals much work to be done in order that the University can take over the building at the beginning of the second semester in February.

George P. Dorrance, superintendent of the Turner Construction Company, builders, stated this week that most of the outside work was done with the exception of the grading which, of course, cannot be started until spring.

The painting of the huge columns, sash and other outside materials is nearing completion but for the past few days the weather has delayed all work. A high grade of pure white paint is being used so that the building presents an imposing picture from Madison avenue.

Christmas Celebrations Sponsored By Dorms

Drew University will have Christmas parties in abundance when the three Brothers College dormitories celebrate next Tuesday evening.

Rogers House promises to have a beautiful Christmas tree, a visit from Santa Claus, a partner for everyone, and mistletoe in every room. The social committee, headed by Walter Sharp, intends to have a short program of entertainment followed by dancing. A limited number of outsiders will be admitted to the affair.

Edmund L. Clark, ex-'34, Dies of Pneumonia in Pa.

Edmund L. Clark, who attended Brothers College in 1933-34, died of pneumonia recently at his home in Clarks Summit, Pa.

Chester Hodgson, '35, a life-long friend, conducted the funeral services. Clark's passing marks the second death to befall a former B. C. student. Last year Emmet Fowler, ex-'32, was killed in an automobile accident.

As yet death has not struck in the ranks of graduates of Brothers College.

Send Six IRC Men To Swarthmore Meet

Savidge, Comstock, Baughman, Potter, and Larsen, Chosen For 2-Day Gathering

The International Relations Club will send six delegates to the Middle Atlantic International Relations Clubs Conference at Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa., Friday and Saturday, December 16 and 17, according to Dan Potter, club president.

Wesley Savidge, club secretary; A. Vernon Carnahan, Harold Larsen, William Comstock, Harry Baughman, and Potter will make the trip. An outstanding feature of the program will be the student round tables on present-day national situations.

To Hear Noted Speakers

Distinguished speakers will address the conference as guests of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace which sponsors these groups in colleges and universities throughout the country. The clubs have as their principal aim the objective study of international affairs. At present there are 854 clubs organized throughout the world and 685 in the United States.

The speakers will include Miss Amy Heminway Jones, the Carnegie representative in charge of International Relations Clubs; and Dr. Hans Simons, of the graduate faculty of political and social science at the New School for Social Research, New York.

Lankard To Attend National Biblical Instructors' Meeting

Madison, N. J., December 15—Dr. Frank G. Lankard will attend a conference of the National Association of Biblical Instructors to be held at Union Theological Seminary, New York City, December 27-30.

Serving as president of the association during 1937, Dean Lankard has been a prominent member at the annual conferences for many years. After a luncheon on Tuesday, December 27, a series of meetings, treating every phase of Biblical teaching, will commence. Wednesday morning will be devoted to Biblical Literature and Exegesis, a field in which Dean Lankard has excelled since his undergraduate days. The conference ends Friday, December 30, with a final organization meeting.

Council Committee Codifies Regulations

"Girls in Dormitories" Rule Includes Curfew Provision

Centering about the oft-repeated theme that a Brothers College student "is always a gentleman," the faculty-approved "Rules of Conduct for Brothers College Students" have been compiled by a committee of the Student Council.

Regulation of the entertainment of women guests in the dormitory rooms has been left to the discretion of the students, but the presence of women in the dorms after 10 P. M., or while dances or other social affairs are in progress is termed "especially undesirable."

No new rule concerning the use of alcoholic beverages has been announced, but students have been urged to govern themselves by "the expressed feelings of the other residents of his dormitory and by the rules enjoined by the University authorities."

Ordinary infractions of the rules will be considered by the house disciplinary committees; more serious offenses will be handled by the College Disciplinary Authority, a body which will be adapted from the present student-faculty committee to supplant the long defunct student court.

Dean Picks Advisers For Activity Groups

Dean Lankard, at the request of the extra-classroom activities committee, has appointed a separate faculty adviser for each student activity for the academic year 1938-1939, it was learned today. These men, it was revealed, will play more of a passive than an active role in guiding the activities, being ready at all times to offer their advice.

The list, which is complete except in one or two cases, includes: ACORN; McClintock; Oak Leaves; McClintock; Debate; Pooley; Forum; Pooley; Dramatics; Johnson; Basketball; Semester; Baseball; Young; Tennis; Jordy; Social Committee; Semester; Philosophy and Religion Club; Benton; Biology Club; Green; International Relations Club; Trickett; Camera Club; Baez; Orchestra; Woolley; and Quartet, Lankard.

Drechsel, Pfeiffer To Lead Forum On Germany Tonight

The Forum will continue its regular series of meetings this evening at 8 p.m., when it meets in Baldwin Hall to consider the question—"Resolved: That Hitler's Attitude Toward Minorities in Germany is to the Best Interests of Germany."

The affirmative viewpoint will be upheld by Earhart Drechsel; the negative, by Heinz Pfeiffer. Dr. Meier will be the critic.

Truscott Explains Mendel's Heredity Laws To Bio Club

B. Lionel Truscott read a paper last Monday afternoon before fifteen members of the Biology Club.

Truscott spoke on the Laws and Theories of Heredity. Stressing the work of Gregor Mendel, he presented blackboard diagrams to show graphically some of Mendel's findings.

Orchids to Joe Hough who broke his own all-time Drew scoring record last week. Joe's feat of hanging up twenty-eight points was as noteworthy as slamming three home runs in baseball or denting the nets for three goals in hockey. Joe was nothing short of terrific and when he was finally lifted by Coach Harry Simester the crowd gave him what are known in Brooklyn as "arousing overations."

Four of Coach Simester's original starting line-up of four years ago will appear with the Alumni tomorrow night. Billy Gemmel and Ev Stanert, forwards, and center Grove Bagby have been named to start. Kermit Bricker, a guard, is also certain to see action. This quartet along with Ralph Eskesen comprised the Green and Gold's first winning combination.

Three of the Alumni are playing with the Redeemer quintet in Morristown. They are Grove Bagby, Jack Strange, and Bob Sutton. . . Kermit Bricker and Herman Rosenberg are with the Morristown Jewish Center.

BRIEF AS WOMAN'S LOVE is this section of the new micro-film ACORN . . . guess putting out a paper isn't so easy as rolling off a monolog . . . not to be compared with the facility with which Nimrods Young and Simester bag their quarry—they usually come home wagging their quail behind them . . . nor yet with the insouciance with which gimlet-eyed Hough drops the old apple through the swish-cord . . .

WHAT OFT WAS THOUGHT but ne'er so well repressed: it's a world well lost in which Luckman doesn't make All-American; they try to make Yehudi Menuhin join the union (ars gratia A.F.L.).

THE SONG IS ENDED but the malady lingers on . . . it has been suggested that ADAM's graduation from B. C. will be an occasion of dignity—not because of honors conferred, but rather out of deference to the grey hair he will then have . . . this sounds optimistic since right now he has practically to part his hair with a wash-rag . . . at any rate, and forsaking all others, ADAM must see a man about cracking a book . . . so henceforth you will be annoyed by a different columnist.

Riders Rout Cathedral 57-24 As Hough Sets Scoring Record; Lose to Hartwick Away, 25-48, After Beating Webb In Opener

Team Finds Foreign Court Unfriendly

Winch Leads Riders at Hartwick, But Only Home Team Has Scoring Knack

The Circuit Riders incurred their first defeat of the young court campaign losing to Hartwick by a score of 48 to 25 at Oneonta, New York, last Friday night. While not wishing to offer any alibis it is safe to say that an unsteady backboard was responsible for many of Drew's shots going to waste. Also the rim rattled like an old man's teeth in a blizzard. Unless the ball struck the cords it was no basket. Shots that hit the rim were no go. However, in all due credit to Hartwick, the home aggregation staged a brilliant offense to roll up an impressive score. Jimmy Manahan, a big deliberate sort of player with a deceptive dribble, accounted for seventeen points via six field goals and five fouls.

Milt Winch led Drew's scorers with nine points. Joe Hough was restricted to a mere half dozen markers and Swede Backstrom, ace hawkshot, went scoreless.

Sink Webb Admirals In Opener, 38-21

Drew opened the new basketball season with a none too difficult victory over Webb Institute by a score of 38 to 21. Joe Gook-arm Hough, the Circuit Riders' most prolific scorer, drilled the nets with a half dozen field goals and five fouls for a total of seventeen points. Ray Stan just missed double figures with nine points to take second place honors.

Webb enjoyed a brief lead at the start, but Hough erased it with a pair of field goals after Drew had missed a dozen shots. Drew established an 8 to 2 lead at the quarter and increased the margin to 21 to 9 at the midway point. Milt Winch set a dizzy pace with three field goals in a row in the final moments. Drew was passing fast, but the offense seemed to lack polish at times. However, Webb's attack was woefully weak and Drew was never pressed.

Webb hurtled back into the running by cutting the locals' margin to six points at the start of the second half. Drew's defense tightened and Hough roped in four fouls to increase the lead. But the undaunted Sailors flipped three more baskets to make the score 25 to 21. Ray Stan's sensational three goal spurt in the final quarter put the game on ice for the Circuit Riders.

Joe Is Sensational Making 28 Tallies

Locals Hit Stride for First Time, As Backstrom, Stan, And Winch, Co-Star

Paced by Joe Hough who gave the most sensational exhibition of offensive basketball ever seen on the ancient Drew court, the Circuit Riders whipped Cathedral by a score of 57 to 24. Hough broke his own scoring record by swishing thirteen field goals and two fouls through the cords for twenty-eight points. Gook-arm Joe alone scored enough points to win the game, but Milt Winch and Ray Stan went on smaller rampages of their own to enable the home five to administer a worse defeat to Cathedral than did the redoubtable St. Francis quintet.

Starting at a furious pace Drew assembled an early lead. A couple pesty guards became over-zealous in guarding Hough and Winch in the opening moments. A flurry of fouls called by Darb Kenny was all they got for their trouble and served to split the defense wide open. Drew combining the pick-off play with some snappy passwork dazzled the city slickers to assume a 31 to 14 lead at the half. Jackette, the visitors sharpshooter, uncorked the longest field goal ever seen here just as the buzzer sounded. He shot from near the sidelines back of the white stripe in back court. The ball traveled nearly forty-five feet.

Stars of Yesteryear Face Varsity Friday

Orr, Stanert, Bagby, Strange, and Gemmel, to Uphold Honor of "Alumni"

The Circuit Riders will engage the Alumni tomorrow night in a game which promises to be a blood and thunder battle. A squad of familiar faces sprinkled with a few grads of more ancient vintage has been hard at work in preparation for the contest for the past three weeks. Obviously the current edition of the Circuit Riders will have an advantage in team play, but the Alumni will be anything but rusty. All of them are playing with various clubs in the vicinity.

Heading the array of onetime Drew talent will be Ted Orr who will captain the Alumni quintet. Orr, a member of the class of 1933, will operate at guard. Though he played here before the time of the present student body Orr was once the Green and Gold's high scorer. Ev Stanert and Grove Bagby from last year's team will start at forward and center respectively.
