FIRST CLASS MAIL

"Student government ofter seems composed of those who didn't get nicknames

Drew Acorn

Student Newspaper Of The College

during orientation week.

- a Ben-nie

Volume XLIII No. 3

DREW UNIVERSITY, MADISON, NEW JERSEY

September 26, 1969

DISCIPLINE AREA UNDER STUDY

Story page 3

Smartt: raids-"unfortunate"

Story page 2

Then to now...

The first member of the Class of '70 to make good in the big old outside world; and we knew him when. Why, it was only a few short years ago that he stood right before our eyes on the Great Hall stage and performed with Andy Chilsen. About six feet high, a wavy haired brunette, Larry Packer 'stood (picture above) far right. Today the rest is history. You know him as the guitarist for Cat Mother and the All-Night Newsboys, who swept onto the Merv Griffin show with their big old hit "Good Old Rock and Roll Larry helped write that one, as did everyone alse in the group. Sources close to the guitarist-alumnus refuse to indicate whether Larry is considering giving a percentage of his royalties to his alma mater.

New bylaws detail Drew functions

"An independent center of Trustees, executive committee, higher learning, Drew University is dedicated to the creation and maintenance of a community of committee, plans and resources scholars, faculty and students, committee, buildings and grounds and all the conditions necessary committee, nominating committhereto, for the pursuit of know- tee, honorary degrees commitledge, wisdom, and truth, and tee, committee on student afthe communication of knowledge fairs and campus life, visiting and its interpretations."

DREW ACORN

the new university bylaws, which were adopted by the Board of mittees, conferring of decrees Trustees June 16, 1969. Un- in course, appointment and rechanged significantly since 1868. the bylaws contain eight articles, each separated into a number ols, and departments within a of sections and/or statements dealing with specific functions ial meetings, quorum of trustof the university.

The bylaws' preamble sets down the general goals and pur- urch and its successors, an assuits of the university in addition to other introductory information. The remainder of the preamble reads as follows:

"The University pursues this general aim, however, with continuing concern for the interrelatedness of the various areas of knowledge and for their relevance to the human condition; and it seeks to create and susof pregrams. tain structures and an atmos-"The following bylaws estabphere which foster experiences of personal growth and genuine

"The University enjoys an historic and continuing association with the Methodist Episcopal Ch-

community within the learning

Section one of this first article gives a general statement about the university's three schools, section two states the design of the Theological School and the final section comments on the function of the Graduate tails information on the trust-and finance committee.

committees, special committees. Thus begins the preamble of vacancies on committees, student and faculty participation on commoval of administrative officers, creation and termination of schoschool, regular meetings, specees and committees and conduct of business. sociation which finds a common bond and furnishes mutual support in a search for and witness to the truth.

"In keeping with both its heritage and the conditions of free inquiry and genuine community, the University commits itself to an ecumenical and ethnic openess in admission of students. selection of faculty, and conduct lish the procedures through which Drew University will govern itself and are designed to set forth the function and responsibilities of the Board of Trustees, the President, the Deans and other administrative officers, the Faculties, the Students, and the Alumni. These bylaws aim to establish a pattern of governance in accord with the best traditions of the academic world."

Article I. which contains four Most comprehensive of the ar- sections, deals with the object ticles is the second, which de- and design of the university. In reference to the College of Libees. Contained in this article eral Arts, section three states, are twenty-three sections con- "It is the design of the College cerning: number and manner of of Liberal Arts to prepare stuelection, qualifications, term of dents for graduate and profesoffice, officers of the Board of sional school and for occupa-

Campus traditions stop short of privacy raids

A raid on women's dormitories unscheduled visits that their enlast Thursday night, following the ergies might have been better

"both embarrassed and incon- the timing of the raid, ized late in the evening, by stu- case, however, it happened the dents from all four classes, and first night of open house, someevery women's dormitory, from thing we've been fighting for McClintock to Hoyt-Bowne, was for a long time now.

Smartt noted that property sponsibility in better ways than damage was "minimal," and of- this, to say the least. The mere fered student government funds fact that so many girls seemed to anyone who had valuable items' both surprised and annoyed is taken and not returned.

who participated in last evening's night.

Others are academic policy capture by sophomores of Hoppy channelled into activities during earlier in the day, provoked a regularly scheduled visitation strong response from SG Presi- periods. dent Robert Smartt last Friday. . SG Attorney General David Al-In a memo to all students, perin, who assisted Smartt in Smartt termed the "activities dismissing the final corps of in support of a campus tradition" raiders from McClintock Hall, "unfortunate" and "ill-timed." noted that open house had just Drew women, he stated, were begun that day and questioned venienced by this invasion of "I can understand a panty raid,' he commented, "although The "panty raid" was organ- it is a little childish. In this

> "We could have shown our rean indication that those involved-

"However, he commented, were showing poor judgement." "While recognizing a desire to According to an anonymous preserve tradition, we must keep student in the raid, both Hoppy traditional activities in proper and a well-known upperclasswoperspective. I would remind those man were "given rides" that high quality with major attention istrar. its students.'

cations for the trustees:

ter of those elected to the Board of Trustees shall be members of the United Methodist Church; ciples of academic freedom and provided that from this computation there shall be excluded those trustees holding office pur- iversity Senate comprises Artisuant to (previously mentioned cle V. It reads, "The Univerin this article) terms.

such person's 70th birthday. tive officers, shall be consulta- members of the community. c)No administrative officer or tive and recommending body defaculty member of Drew Uni- aling with all academic matters versity (except the President who which concern the University as serves by Charter provision ex awhole. The agenda of the Unofficio without vote) shall be el- iversity Senate may be drawn igible to serve as a trustee, from matters brought to it by minds, offering academic work of university library, and the reg- mittee thereof." to the personal development of Article IV concerns the faculty, stating of whom the faculty Section 2 states the qualifi- shall consist, the faculties of the schools and a faculty persona)at all times at least one quar- nel policy, "The Board of Trustees shall adopt a Faculty Personnel Policy incorporating prin-tenure.

A lengthy statement on the Unsity Senate, a body representab)A person shall not be eligible tive of the University faculties. Article III of the bylaws deals the President, by the Board of with the officers of the univer- Trustees, by the separate faculsity: the President, the Vice- ties, by the University faculty, tions which require substantial Presidents, academic deans, the by student governments, and by general background and trained treasurer, the director of the members of the Senate or com-

> It continues. "The Senate may make recommendations to the University Faculty, the several faculties, or to any other component of the University. The Senate shall report regularly to the several faculties, to the University Faculty, and through the President to the Board of Trust-

Article VI state s the campus regulations and that the trustees shall adopt a statement of the for election as Trustee after student bodies, and administra- rights and responsibilities of

> Article VII is simply titled "Miscellaneous" and concerns . funds of the university, securities of the unversity and bonding of officers in its three sections: Article VIII deals with the process of making a-

Two return from spring bust

Two of three students who asked that the charges be drop- which relate solely to the indiwere arrested on drug charges ped and that the University ex- vidual? here last spring in a much-pro- plain exactly how it had obtained tested "bust" have returned to the information which led to the Stonesifer stated that the Uni-Drew this fall.

James Kavanaugh, now a sopleft for academic reasons.

guilty to charges this summer, ther action at that time. Kavanaugh for the more serious ton Hall around 11:30 p.m. At " marijuana and mild forms of at all to act in such matters, hold them."

As the police came on campus a large crowd, and by the time away, an angry crowd had gathered outside Haselton.

SG President Robert Smartt and VP George De Girolamo attempted to calm the crowd, which was sporadically hurling objects from cigarettes to rocks and loudly demanding the police leave, Liebe, Kavanaugh, and Coffee were originally handcuffed and later led through the

As the police attempted to leave, the crowd blocked their path, and the cars tangled in Baldwin circle. They were not able to leave the campus until after la.m.

The three were out on bail within 48 hours, but in the meantime a student meeting was called by SG President Smartt to discuss the situation,

In a prepared speech, Smartt arrests.

"When I see an insane and omore, and Brank Coffee, a unjust war taking thousands of source." He declined to name transfer last year, have returned. Hives every year, I cannot consid- the source, however, "because The third student, Andrew Liebe, er these young men criminals," it might prejudice the trial," Kavanaugh and Liebe both pled ed that students take no fur- side narcotics agents operating

Ignoring this, a group of close charge of possession of nar- to 150 students walked down to the second question, the difficotics. He was given a fine, Dean Richard Stonesifer's house culty of getting specific evidence. is required to carry a "user" and asked that he come out and In order to make an arrest, poscard, and has lost his driver's defend the Unversity's action, Coffee 's trial was delayed th- for an hour and a half, during other and bigger users on camrough courtroom tie-ups, but he which time he was asked three pus." appeared recently and also pled questions repeatedly: 1) How The Dean replied to the third The bust occurred the Friday formation to swear out the war- to the laws of the state, and night of exam week last spring. rant? Are there outside or in- that drug use violates state law. Madison police and University side narcotics agents operating - "I do not happen, myself, to officials, with search warrants, here? 2) Why did the University agree with the present laws on the time, it was reported that 3) Is it the job of the University they are the laws, we must up-

On the first question, Dean

versity had gotten the information from a "very reliable said Smartt, However, he urg- He denied that there are outon the campus.

The Dean cited, in regard to session must be witnessed. He The Dean spoke to students also added, "We know there are did the University get the in- question that Drew is subject choose these three, when there use of marijuana in the state are "bigger users" elsewhere? of New Jersey. However, while

As the police came on campus in a fleet of cars, they attracted. Calendar coordinator is the arrest was made and the po-

An informal meeting of persons for making this information ainterested in the problem of co- vailable. ordinating University calendar Also present were Mrs. Franevents decided this week to post ces Sellers, University Calensity Center.

dar will be in U.C. 109, after Alten Sawin, SG President Robert which it will be moved to a more Smartt, Social Chairman Dave generally convenient place where Marsden, Photo Club President all students may see it. Jerry Harmen, and Paul Dezen-will be Kellee Faught, a fresh- Among the suggestions were man. It is hoped that all events, coordination of the various arts with all pertinent information festival groups, the various will be available to students on speaker-bringing organizations, the calendar. The meeting this week included Zations, etc.

Robert Schechtman and Brack 'Smartt commented that he felt ence instructors respectively, should schedule their activities who had worked together during into the University calendar as the summer to arrange a system weel.

a list of all events in the Univer- dar Coordinator, Chaplain James Boyd, Public Relations Head J. When first set up, this calen- Mark Lono, Deans Sue Orvik and Keeping the calendar up to date dorf, among others.

the performer-bringing organi-

Brown, music and political sci- the Seminary and graduate school

Around the hom, from left to right, Canned Heat: Bob "The Bear" Hite, Larry "The Mole" Taylor, Al "Blind Owl" Wilson, Henry "Sunflower" Vestine (who has since left the group and been replaced by Harvey Mandell), and Fio Della Parra. Appearing here in concert with John Mayall on October 11.

$1.5 million waiter system dining complex proposed hall to discuss changes in the plan partment facing Young Field)and mer. Mr. John Pepin, University treasurer and Vice-President, will preside over the meeting.

Financing is currently the problem for the dining hall. The proposed structure would cost one and a half million dollars. ganizations are included.

This July, Senator Harrison Williams (D-NJ) announced a federal government loan of $1.3 million dollars to Drew for the diring hall construction. Drew did not receive notification, however, and there is also some question whether the cutback on federal construction projects recently announced by President Nixon would affect the loan. An additional $200,000 would have to be raised in capital gifts and income to cover the total projected cost, of course. University sources indicated that a quiet campaign is underway to raise the money.

University officials are meet- The dining hall, as now proposing next week with the architect ed, would be constructed on the of Drew's proposed new dining hill between Tipple Hall (the awhich was presented this sum- the gym. It is a two-story structure, with one entire floor for a dining complex.

The proposed dining hall would work on the waiter instead of the cafeteria system, and offices for

Mr. John Pepin, University Vice President, has announced the first open meet ing of the University's nonacademic staff next Wednesday for 4 p.m. in the Founders Room of Mead Hall. At this meeting, students may raise any questions about any non-academic aspect of the University including Buildings and Grounds problems, questions on University policies, building programs, and other matters.

UN group misses Nixon

The Drew University students and the Drew U.N. students were in the United Nations program therefore not included in the new were to hear President Nixon ad. seating plan. It is not known if dress the United Nations General anyone other than the Drew stu-Assembly last Thursday, They dents were denied admissions, were suddenly informed that they. The apparent reason for this

dents had already been granted the experts. tickets to the program beforehand) was presented on the basis that the U.N. had requested that speech on the television at the only a certain number of seats would not even be allowed to enter surprise denial seems to be that the United Nations building, let President Nixon was afraid of alone be present at Nixon's ad- some sort of demonstration by dress to the General Assembly. the U.N. when he made his ad-The explanation for this dress. The speech was not restrange maneuver (the U.N. stu- garded as a landmark by any of

The Drew U.N. students watched President Nixon given his home of one of their instructors.

Change rules, clarity accuser directly confronts wh- possibility. More complete and omever he accuses. This has been the big problem for Attorney Generals -- that they have always been the ones who have had to prosecute, while a defendant may never even know

A more legalistic structure for judicial proceedings advocated by President Robert Smartt in his campaign last spring was endorsed by Alperin, who called it "the well-defined standard we Alperin added, however, that subjective system, one which will depend far less on personalities.

efit from a rigid formalism.

We must have some flexibility

Alperin saw a public defender system as one possibility for a revised disciplinary structure.

with the Attorney General serving more as counsel than as direct participant.

for differing circumstances."

who accused him."

need."

"The office of Attorney General, if it is carried out as it is now structured, requires that the man in the position be the 'campus bastard',' commented Attorney General David Alperin earlier this week.

Alperin announced that his office is currently exploring methods of reforming the "judicial and disciplinary structures of the student body."

The structure of judicial and disciplinary. proceedings is a problem now, Alperin continued, "because there is no well-defined set of rules, regulations, or possible penalties."

"The first step, therefore, should be are-evaluation of those rules which concern purely personal conduct. Each individual is responsible for what he does, although of course a community needs some rules to insure the good of the whole.

"Somewhere between the police state and total individual freedom we can find something which fits the needs of Drew.

"I stress that student government must be made up of responsible individuals if we are to get this coherent re-structuring. And to do that, we must show the faculty and administration that we represent a responsible student body."

Beside rule re-evaluation, Alperin saw the need for disciplinary restructuring.

"We need an adversary system, for one thing, where an Welch Hall President, Welch Sen-one candidate for the offices of Lockers in

Commuter space sought candidate.

Commuter senator Mike Jac- not yet functional, however, beques stated this week that a com- cause there are no keys for the muter meeting had come up with locks. Jacques stated that he either student or University or- several ideas and requests con- hopes that will be cleared up wicerning commuter students at thin the next few weeks. Drew. Reserved commuter parking spaces and a commuter bulletin board were two requests. Last spring Jacques, partially through the student senate, made three requests for commuters: a commuter lounge, commuter lockers, and a commuter meal plan whereby commuters would get lunch at Saga.

The lockers were installed over the summer in the rear of the University Center. They are U.C. 101 has become a commuter lounge again.

The commuter meal ticket plan was rejected by Saga, which feels to break even on such a plan. The bulletin board idea was a subject of debate in last spring's commuter senator elections, and

Jacques has said that he is working on the idea. He stated that he plans to meet with Dean of Student Altor Sawin.

ator, and Senator from the class next Tuesday to eliminate at least Petitions for offices in the October 6 dormitory and 71 elections were due in this week. According to Pete Schuyler, Elections Committee Chairman, there are several offices for which there is only a single declared

The ballots now stand: Baldwin Senator: Nelson Adams

Ralph Austin

Brown Senator: Kari Conrad Tacy Pack

Mary Jo Waits Commuter Senator: Mike Jacques

Foster President: Dave Confer Hoyt-Bowne President: Rhonda Rush

Hurst President: Ralph Burdett

Tolley Senator: Richard Guhl James Pfieffer

Melissa Lavers

Lynn Hoskins Marsha Beck

Welch Senator: Debbie Fears Lynn Dooher

'71 Senator: Bruce Sn.4th John Sinibaldi Alice Burks David Little

Haselton Senator: Cecilio Bar-

Convocations is bringing "Tom Paine," the off-broadway theatre hit, to Baldwin gym on October 5. Starring in the production will be Jerry Cunliffe, who has just completed the film version of the play "Futz", which movie will be released in November.

formal reform proposals on all aspects of this question may be offered later." Although Alperin declined to offer specific proposals at this time, he did state that he favors the keeping of a transcript book for all judicial proceedings. "This would then be available to persons involved in later cases, for use as precedent and reference." Summing up the need for reform of the Attorney General's position in the overall disciplinthere would be a danger in overary and judicial structure, Allegalism. "We do need a less perin commented that "The last really good Attorney General we had was David Keyko, three years But we would probably not ben-

This wasn't largely the fault of the Attorney Generals, though, I t was the structure which cast him as the 'heavy.' He was the one who had to prosecute people on all charges. He suffered from the fact that specific rules and penalties came as real surprises to many people, Revisions must correct this."

Many dorm offices look uncontested

A primary election will be held

Anyone may still run on a write -in, but only those now on the ballot will have their names listed.

Baldwin Pres: Thomas Holland

it could not make enough money Brown Pres: Julie Bornemann

Cathy Schuyler Mike Wickenden

Haselton President: Chandler Welch

> Cookie Kosakowski Neil Manowitz

McClintock President: Usha Vy-

Welch President: Regina Geisel

Evelyn Pollard

And not to neglect SG...

And then we've still got student government. Lest we forget what has been happening in that corner of the University micropower structure, following are some of the polarized wavelengths which have filtered through the SG prism.

First, we are now in the midst of an election. Like all past elections, it hasn't gone right, it seems that, among other things, there were 1) contradictory information on the petitions and their accompanying information sheets (concerning required # of signatures), and 2) a failure to let anybody know where or when petitions could be turned in (until the traditional last second) as well as 3) a failure to tell the Elections Committee Chairman what was going on, Those at the top of student government seem perenially to assume that the Chairman will know all the correct procedures and details, forgetting that confusion is the only clearly established election precedent. Over the past two or three years Drew's election invalidation index has run around 40%, which is considerably higher than the voter turnout. Fortunately, Pete Schuyler is a competent person and he can probably make this one come off adequately. But this dismal scrimmaging beforehand can mildly be termed "unnecessary."

Then there's EPPC and sub-committees and the like, Last year Ken Gates offered an assurance that things were all set: as soon as King-Kennedy went into operation, students would be given a voice on the financial aid policy committee. Dean Sawin agreed (as far as he could) to this at an open student senate meeting. Well, we all remember King-Kennedy. So what did Mr. Smartt propose at the first open student body meeting this year? Students on the financial aid subcommittee, because we obviously earned it. The faculty may be forgiven for hesitating a bit.

But there are other student and faculty committees, none of which Mr. Smartt seems concerned over, Historically, Drew student presidents have fallen upon the problem of where they will concentrate their good people. Mr. Smartt has chosen to give himself a qualified, if sometimes erratic, personal staff of three or four people, while leaving other groups -- the senate, senate committees, etc. to work on their own, which past performance indicates few will do. No one else seems concerned either, though, because...

"Student government is the only thing closer to you than the establishment."

The proposals which will come forth this year will come from Mr. Smartt, His speeches to the open student meeting and to the first senate meeting make it reasonably certain that that is how he will operate. Mr. Smartt wants to get as much done as possible this year, and that means proposing his own ideas as they come up, without waiting for committee initiative, Con-revision, red tape, or whatever. When the dorms needed judicial bodies, Mr. Smartt appointed them. He did so democratically, but still, he officially appointed them himself. If next year's President decides to appoint senators from every dorm for the month of September, by precedent he may now do so, Interesting.

Aiso interesting was hir, Smartt's declaration that no dorm could begin open house until the senate (read: Bob Smartt) had acted. There is nothing in the faculty ruling that prohibited a dorm from forming an ad hoc structure to begin open house under. Some dorms even had their own structure. True, it would have been inefficient for most dorms to try it alone; Mr. Smartt's method was administratively superior. But, again, the precedent gives the executive and senate some very interesting powers over the dorms: like suspending all dorm constitutions at will.

So Mr. Smartt will be doing what Mr. Smartt thinks should be done. The idea isn't all that bad, because he probably has some of the most intelligent ideas in the University. But in his impatience with and rejection of the current systems of student government, he may leave the whole setup as even more of an autocracy (albeit a benevolent autocracy) than it already is, Dorms, classes, the senatethey can't take too much weakening. (Let's even forget altogether that Smartt in his campaign promised to strengthen them.)

Here as in other places, a few weeks spent in serious consideration of a coherent central philosophy, instead of ad hoc proposals on specific matters (i.e. whether freshmen women have to be in at 12 or 1 on Friday night is not our essential question; whether the University should be able to tell them to be in at all is) might well produce better specifics, and would certainly produce more credible ones, Structure requires people, who may not be available, but philosophy does not.

And then lastly there is the slightly impolite matter of probation. Students can't be senators while on probation, because they can't be good senators at the same time they obviously have academic catching up to do. The senate would take too much of their time. Well, to begin with, the student senate is the only organization with this rule. Which looks a little silly normally (the editor of Oak Leaves puts in a lot more time than a student senator, and, all things considered, gets more accomplished). But now the rule is absurd, since we have a President, on probation, who doesn't have to resign. Does this lead one to the paradoxical conclusion that senators (who have met once so far this year) work harder than the President? No, it leads rather to the conclusion that some rule somewhere isn't making sense, And the final logical irony is the fact that Mr. Smartt himself and his close group of advisors are the only ones who seem to notice such things. Which is the danger in even benevolent auto: . That interesting juxtaposition of are neither all-inclusive nor ities of the risk.

Letters To The Editor

The problem

A shame, a real shame, Something to laugh and cry about. Reminisce, tell me what hanpened. Drew students prising in a mass about something. Tell me more. Goddamn.

I wasn't here last semester (which now seems more than fortunate, both for my head and my non-existent law record) but for others it was a nightmare, a royal pain in the ass and/or the biggest hassle of them all. A bust, Hands up against the wall while floating on mescal- To the Editor: ine, Lovely plants gaining maturity in a room-closet. Powders hidden in contact lenses cases. Deans chatting socially with cops as three persons' lives became a bit more screwed up than they were previously.

Paranoia has reached new heights. I feel it, many around me do likewise. Let us be cautious (O, illustrious Dean of Students, does this mean I will be followed around campus and my room searched on Saturdays. party night of party nights?).

Drinking is illegal on campus but openly condoned - just walk into any room. But drugs are against outside law, with wide ranging penalties. To quote one of last year's unfortunates: "You can argue about it all you want, but what it comes down to in that courtroom is that it's against the law and that law will not be changed for your day in court". Hence a word of caution. Keep dope out of your room, to protect not only yourself but also your roommate, whom, whether you like it or not, you must also take into consideration. If you're holding dope, smoke or drop it quickly. And there are many very pretty places on this campus where it is safer to engage in these extracurricular activities than in your

A little more thought to get you are running an institution of learning here, and I am being deadly serious when I say that it is probably a very hard job. You are being hassled day and night. But do you not have a responsibility to your students and their higher laws than those of ridiculousness outside. I am now a little angry, I know these three people. They are my friends, very real to me, and not to be regarded as harmful to me. Whatever activities they may have engaged in did less harm to themselves than the harm brought about by the entrance of the Madison police.

Failure setting

September 18, 1969

I find it indicative of the sensitivity of the typical Drew student to discover that many of the participants in the impromptu staging of "Chicago" in Mead Hall's foyer during the tea for the new faculty worried over the faculty's possible misunderstanding of the good will that lay behind the 'hap-

I would want to assure them that their effort to break through the uncomfortable artificiality of the occasion was indeed appreciated -even if most of us were reluctant to let go of our protective masks. Give us time--and MORE 'happenings' -- and you will discover that we too can live honestly with our emotions. Faculty who are seriously disturbed by such unscheduled inroads upon their psyches need tell you so. When they do-and apparently none did that Sunday afternoon--I'm sure you will be able to respect the "up tight" legacy our generation must carry by rescheduling the "happening" for a less psychically threatening time, and place.

Bob Friedrichs

It's simple math

The typographer seems to have done us all considerable harm in your September 19 issue. But I am utterly fascinated by one sentence off my brain. Deans of this school in the piece "Poll Shows Libertarianism.

On page 16 I read that "males preferred to marry a great design. virgin by a slight margin, while females disagreed."

If these tired old eyes, accustomed over the years to sorting lives? Before last year, all drug out elements in the English senmatters were handled within the tence, tell me rightly, this can be school, Will all drug busts now read in an assortment of ways: be handled by outside police or (a) that a slight margin arithwere those three people special, metically favored virgins over a little more expendable. Of non-virgins, or (b) that males course they broke the law. I seem to prefer to marry girls know this. Perhaps I am mis- who have managed to remain taken when I say that there are virgins "by a slight margin." This last possible reading raises such interesting fields for commentary that I wouldn't care to Indeed the sentence as set forth has other ambiguities. Literally read, all those males seem to be intent on marrying one virgin. And what do the females "disagree' about -being virgins, or marrying male virgins, or what? Obviously, in the context we KNOW what the sentence says, overlook the necessity of reacting as a teacher of composition. Richard J. Stonesifer even if it doesn't say it. But I can't

Tapestry theory

In regard to that "Melting Pot" theory of American sociology. It is obvious that there is a gap somewhere between the 60% of the freshmen who felt that America is not a melting pot and the 90% who felt that America is not a "white racist society".

For that 50% to 60% who accept neither, perhaps the gap can be filled by another ideal: the 'Tapestry' theory. It runs something like this:

Since people from other countries began to come to America as immigrants, the usual, wellestablished formula or adage used to describe the method by which these immigrants are turned into Americans is The Melting Pot. The idea is that those who come to these shores are like a hunk of metal that is dropped into a melting pot One does not expect to find a trace of a particular chunk of metal. There is a complete loss of identity. I would like to change this formula and say that a much better and nobler parallel is weaving a tapestry. In this every person coming does not melt into disappearance: rather he forms one stitch of the great beautiful tapestry that represents the American people. No stitch of tapestry is lost. Each stitch appears in its true, beautiful color and helps complete the

To be dropped into a melting pot means loss of identity. Who wants to get lost?

Perhaps the mystery, or secret of the American nation is the preservation of this identity.

This also places responsibility on each person to strive to make his part of the design of the tapestry as beautiful as possible.

Garabed K. Daghlian (Physicist)

The view from here On the spring bust class, engrossed in the business today as it was back in May." referred to on campus as the fect of "the vibrations (on not lose sight of some basic ing, as one Frosh put it, be The reflection was on a Spring return to haunt us. One-drugs yet wait until its legal. For most interesting.

of getting an education, a remark True, the "vibrations" (as Chap- "heads". was made by the professor which lain Boyd states) ARE beautiful caused me to reflect upon my this year but in our considera- If you simply must turn on, experiences at Drew. The re- tion and contemplation of this then be discreet or be gone. mark was something to the ef- beauty we must be careful to If you are thinking of experimentcampus) are beautiful this year." truths which, if ignored, could careful who you trust or better night back in May of last year are still prolific on campus, the sake of "mother Drew" don't when the vibrations were truly two-drugs are against the law make such a frightening and Geshorrible. The juxtaposition is ERGO there are lawbreakers on tapo occurence as that of a "bust" this campus against whom Dect, this year, it is neither an en-For three young men and an McKenna and his squad are dut- joyable nor an educational event. approximate crowd of two hun- ifully bound to apprehend. Make Put drugs in their proper perdred students, last year's "bust" no mistake as to the intent here, spective, then judge for yourmay better be forgotten, than dre- 1 am neither predicting, preach- self whether the "mystical" prodged up here to illustrate a most ing nor prophesizing -- only ob- perties of the experience wer-

While sitting in parlosophy which I spoke is just as valid solely pertinent to that element important and relevant point, serving. Also, my observations rant the legal and harsh real-

Smartt at conference

Presidential meeting 'encouraging'

"I've gained a much higher respect for what the University President is trying to do," commented SG President Robert Smartt on his return from the "Presidents-to Presidents' conference in Washington, D.C. last Smartt attended the conference with Richard Cheshire, University Vice-President. Student and College Presidents from across the country attended the gathering at the Sheraton-Park Hotel.

Addressing 'the conference were President Richard Nixon, Selective Service Director Lewis Hershey, HEW Secretary Robert Finch, Presidential Economic Advisor Arthur Burns, and other national figures.

Smartt described the speeches as "pretty general, although there were some hopeful signs of concern in them.

In one scene, the student body President from Fairleigh Dickinson Madison handed President Nixon a peace button in a reception line. Nixon said he had seen the buttons and gave it to an aide. who, according to Smartt, gave it to another aide who gave it another aide who put it in his pock- found a concensus on many issues

Most of the conference consisted of panel discussions, Smartt noted. "In this sense, it may have been over-organized. Every possible moment was scheduled and there was little time for informality or any type of caucusing.'

However, Smartt added that "the panels were largely interesting, and reasonably open." On the final day, a forum conducted tion." by Secretary Finch was disrupt- Most of the people were reas-

The Philosophy-religion club Great Hall, and Phi Sima, Tau, scholastic honorary society, will co-sponsor and address next Wednesday by Dr. Roderick Chisholm, professor of philosophy and Romeo Elton professor of natural theology at Brown University.

feiffer-

obscene debate from the floor. Smartt said he was particularly impressed with General Hershey. "The man knows what he's doing. He would tell us something like "I'll probably only answer the questions I don't know" or "I haven't personally made most of the laws on the books today.'

In response to a very pointed question, Hershey announced he had no intention of retiring from his position as Selective Service

The conference was sponsored by the Association of Student Governments, an organization which formed several years ago in response to the National Student Association, which ASG felt was too much a political activist organization and not enough a student-help association.

ASG bills itself as "the silent majority," and seeks to be non-

of the student body and college presidents to be "quite liberal and quite intelligent. I found good people in both groups."

Smartt further noted that "We -that in loco parentis should be eliminated from the campus, that colleges should become involved in society, and similar matters.

"However, those of us who were there as students developed. a firmer grasp of the problems of administrators, particularly regarding monetary and budgetary problems.

In this sense, it was a President re President communica-

Philosopher Chisholm to speak

Entitled Persons as entities Existing Through Time," the address will be at 8:30 p.m. in Princeton, Alberta, and Chicago.

Dr. Chisholm holds the A.B. from Brown, and the M.A. and PhD. degrees from Harvard, He has been at Brown since 1947, the past three years as philosophy department chairman. He has been a Visiting Professor at various institutions including Harvard, Southern California, ed by a screaming, sometimesreported spending one night arguing with two Washington lawvers over their theory of a nationwide media conspiracy.

> "They believed," commented Smartt, "that the press is organized and active in attempting to project only one viewpoint to the people, and that it was this press conspiracy which has helped swing public opinion against the Vietnam war, etc. etc."

Smartt summed the experience up as "worthwhile."

the drew acorn

David Hinckley Associate Editor Ken Schulman ... Art Schreier Business Manager . Advertising Manager ... Gwen Ivy Columns Editor ... Paul Dezendorf Editor from Afar. Robert Hancock Advisor ... J. Mark Lone Distribution Manager Karin Froeberg Calendar Coordinator Keilee Faught Dave Barnett

The Acom is the student newspaper of the College of Liberal Arts of Drew University, Madison, New Jersey. Subscription rates $5.00 annually, advertising rates available on request.

pectrum

Fun at the UN

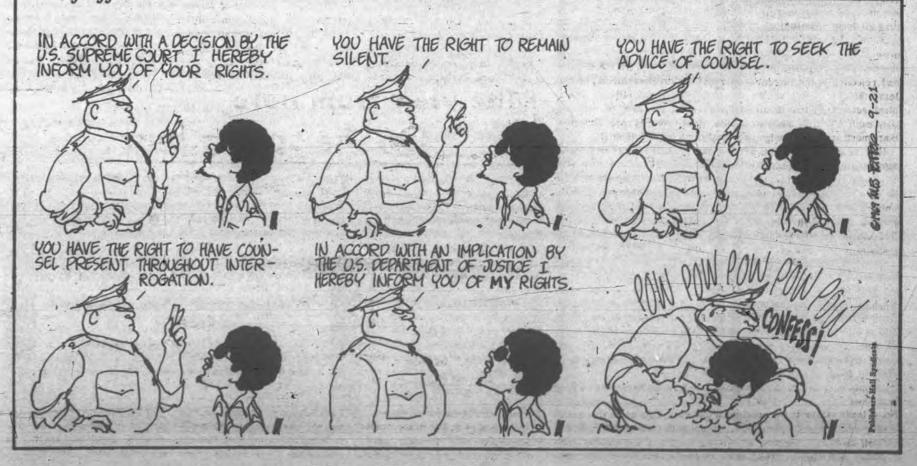

"Salvation is at hand," cried President Dick to the 126 member nations, "you've just got to be patient, that's all!", "You all know that Rome wasn't built in a day. Well- Saigon could be lost in 30 minutes" "I'm still not sure that the Thieu government is our "'Ky" to success in Vietnam. Besides, I've got the stock market to think about." "Any day now I'm going to sit down and talk with the Russians and everything will be swell."

While the President peddled his "day-old bread" before the world's most sincere and astute diplomats and thoroughly embarrassed the few remaining intelligent and concerned Americans, interested in world affairs, outside the U.N. building; the "really big show" of the day was just getting started. An optimistic and fun-loving group, the Revolutionaries for Jesus, was having an orientation problem, in weighing the relative merits of the east and west side of 1st Ave, they had to consider the two alternatives. On the east side, the U.N. building, symbolic of world hope ... but too much of an antithesis to their message. On the west side, "New York's Finest", a hassle, but then again, not intelligent enough to be a serious threat. The west side prevailed!

Dressed in Agway feed bags dyed red (sackcloth), with yoke, staff, and Bible they carried their simple message to a curious public - "Go to Hell". To stand on 1st Ave, that Thursday it was not enough to believe in Dick and his speech of "promise" but one had to believe in Jesus Christ and his number 2 man on earth - U Thant, who according to the "Revs for Jesus" has been "blowing it". At any rate, it makes little difference whether one "believes" or not, Everyone in the United States will burn in 30 days, according to their calculations, I didn't ask them whether Everett Dirksen had gone before to prepare the way for America en masse, but the possibility did present itself. Regardless, I was not pleased with the prophesy. The target date, Oct. 19th is my birthday, and nothing spoils the best one of all - the 21stl Actually these self-styled prophets were quite adept at the old "It's right here in black and white and yellow ... straight from the Bible" trick. The vellow "hiliter" emphasized that portion of the text of guaranteed interest to the public. Out of context, it is quite convincing. As if by magic "a Methodist woman" appeared from the U.N. Church Center and proceeded to argue for the true faith. Meanwhile, Fun City's uniformed mod squad was enjoying the view from the top of surrounding buildings. Yes. Hollywood has finally been outdone. The 12th floor terrace of the Church Center was shared with a uniformed patrolman, a pleasant chap, who unfortunately was replaced by SUPERCOP, a Matt Helm/James Bond in Uniform, He informed us that we better get off his pedestal. Down on the 2nd floor terrace things were more peaceful and the air pollution was a little more obvious, but Mr. Trenchcoat didn't mind. Whether Secret Service or "faking it" he was taking it all in, just like a pro.

All the security hocus-pocus was a waste of time and money, however. Nixon could have handled his own security with one sentence, "SPIRO AGNEW IS MY RIGHT-HAND MAN ... AND NUM-BER TWO ALWAYS TRIES HARDER".

Pernaps the day could have been salvaged if the child prodigy, Shirley Temple Black had delivered the President's address. Then everyone could have laughed without feeling ill at ease. After all, this nation and the world has been conditioned to either laugh at or cry at anything emerging from Hollywood, Besides, the "prophets of doom" outside would seem like comic-relief compared to the frighteningly little regard this nation holds for the U.N. Face it- it's a long way from "Holly" wood" to "diplomat" - even for a child prodigy!

National Enquirer, Review note Wescott book, verbiage flying saucers, tidbits about lan-

Mr. Davenport continues in this critique that "one suspects

by Martha Millard

THE NATIONAL ENQUIRER. in the September 28 edition states that "Roger W. Wescott believes he has a theory that offers an explanation for the numerous sightings UPO's over the years.

Dr. Wescott, chairman of the anthropology department at Drew, proposes the theory that the flying saucers are sent from undersea colonies of people who are gods that were driven off the surface of the earth by the greediness and destructiveness of man. The saucers visible to man are those gods who are sent from the undersea world to view the progress of the people on earth.

In his book THE DIVINE ANI-MAL, AN EXPLANATION OF HUMAN POTENTIAL, which was people landed on the earth 10,000 REVIEW, Dr. Wescott's book is years ago to teach humans abet_ called "an explanation of human ter way of life. Disgusted by the potentiality, and is filled with traits they saw revealed by the humans, they left to inhabit the guages and customs, ... and the sea, People like Budda, Christ, Mohammad and Attila the Hun may have been sent from this today," stated Dr. Wescott in his THE DIVINE ANIMAL.

Oak Leaves realigns editors

Oak Leaves has undergone a er commitments forced Claire currently preparing to put together its 1970 edition.

Jane Spaeth, a senior, and sophomore David Bryan will be coediting the book. Pressure of oth-

FOR SALE: 1967 Montessa The Ferrori of motorcycles. 175 cc. 100 mph. Like new $375. Call 53 8-9256

> DICHOLD DICHOLDICA TELEPHONE 377-8981

67 MAIN STREET MADISON

realignment of editors, and is Weller and Jerry Zelada, who had previously been approved for the positions to withdraw.

Joe Mayher will continue as Business and Production Mana-

Oak Leaves is expected to continue last year's format of candid portraits for senior pictures. Other ideas are currently being considered, including more extensive following of a theme.

VILLAGE SHOP

Wedgewood, Lenox Artware Waterford Glass

WE MAIL 43 Main St. Madison

Dan't forget

Big & Little Lester

Bargut

Shew Manday 18

Rose City

Bulova

Imex

Watch & Jewelry

repairs

Cor. Waverly & Main

PHONE 377-2145

Master Charge

Bank of America

U.C. 107

Free Money From Your Bookstore Be The Big Bread Winner On This Campus Nothing to buy

Pick up your entry form in your FREE Term Planner and Pocket Secretary at your bookstore, Today (Limited Supply) or deposit this entry form in Bookstore Sweepstakes Box within 4 weeks from start of classes Longines Participating Manufacturers Speidel Bond • Eaton's Zodia Stationery lew World

College Notes Campus Steins By Josten Stebco Attache Cases

> Drew University Bookstore

man, theorizes Professor Wes- not move outside the binding of his dictionary, for words have a "I believe that the saucer peo- strange reality for him ... the oldple would be willing to reestablish est man in the world couldn't contact with us if we could eli-, figure out what a cosmatologist minate our own destructiveness. is." Dr. Wescott refers to a Rus-This would open the door to are sian physicist and "rocket chnology we can only dream of crank" as a cosmatologist in moons of Mrs."

After a few more inches of "li-THE NATIONAL ENQUIRER terary criticism" Davenport reported and reviewed the book concludes that "Dr. Wescott is from the angle of Dr. Wescott's trying his best to make sense published this year by Funk and theory of the saucer people al- out of the new "richesse" of in-Wagnalls, Dr. Wescott continues most entirely. In an article by formation which our century has with the theory that the saucer Guy Davenport in the NATIONAL accumulated and spilled forth like a tidal wave."

> They include comment and theo- gin November 16. ries on man's tendency to roam. the inheritance of the earth by blacks, the natural superiority of children (they are open, flexible, hospitable to creative inovatio.). America as an underdeveloped country ("the areas in which the United States is underdeveloped, it seems to me. are not spheres of activity but constellations of cultural char- Male Chorus Leader: Beria Piacter. I would rather say that the areas of activity in which A- Spartan Herald: Ed Wright merica is underdeveloped are Spartan Ambassador: Jim Willis those of selectivity, diversification, and balance.") when it comes to accepting the undersea flying saucer theory, Dr. Wescott's book offers many theories that will interest many people on the exploration of hu-

Comments are also offered on colony to check on the state of that Dr. Wescott's universe does the subject of unlearning. On this topic Dr. Wescott states this: "Of the many unlearnings required by our society, the most conspicuous undoubtably lie in the areas of sexuality and aggres-sion. In regard to both of these taught a stereotyped Christian become chronic worriers.

might do less psychi damage. Unfortunately, however they are children typically respond with guilt and anxiety not merely to overt acts of impropriety on their own part but-far more devastatingly-also to any hostile or erotic impulses they may experience. Self-convicted of thought crimes. they lose a great deal of their basis drives our youngsters are childlike "joie de vivre" and

Haworth, dozens more star in play Lysistrata

The cast was announced this cording to Tom Wright, acting week for the cast of "Lysistra- chairman of the department of ta," the first play to be produ- speech and drama, "will have Many interesting topics are ced by the new theatre depart- some of the funniest lines in the discussed by Professor Wescott. ment this fall. Performances be- play." Over 25 people will com-

Leading the production as Lysistrata will be Linda Haworth. gus, Ann Brentano, Kilina Erick-Other parts include: Kalonike: Cesarina Gonzalez Myrrhine: Carol Cassella Lampito: Dona Becan Female Chorus Leader:

Michele Berezowsky Commissioner: Rich Saslaw Kinesias: Jim Farrow

prise the chorus. Among those include Susan Anson, Medeine Gery, Susan Gonzol, Bev Herr, Debbie Kates, Linda Seitz, Christine Stewart, Elise Trudeau, Dana Vivian, Susan Windle, Mindy Wirkus, Philip Clark, Peter Forss, Paul Gadebusch, Jeff Hoeltzel, Clayton Horsey, Terry Lester, Harry Litwack, Dave Lunt, Bill Morse, Richard Rosenthal, Bill Tiernan and Jay Weidner.

The play was described by Mr. The remaining cast members Wright as "a rollicking, bawdy will be in the chorus, which, ac- anti-war comedy."

What's happening this week

TODAY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26:

Gallery through Sept. 30 Hillel Society meeting: SWB Hall 6:30-7:30 p.m. end through next week) Social Committee Film: James Dean in "East of Eden" Two showings at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Bowne Communion Workshop: Craig Chapel. 8:15-9 p.m. College Choir Retreat (through the 27th) Busses leave 5 p.m. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27:

German Club Picnic: Meadowbrook Farm, Busses leave 1 p.m. and return 4 p.m.

Soccer: Varsity game away vs. Seton Hall College Dances: St. Elizabeth's Mixer 9 to 1 a.m.; pose room 107. 9 to 1 a.m.

Senior Class Picnic: Lewis Morris Park, 3 to 8 p.m SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28:

Chapel: Ecumenical Celebration, 9 to 1 p.m. CLOSE TO CAMPUS: FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26 and SATURDAY, SEPTEM-

Fifth Dimension, Spiral Staircase and Ten Wheel, ART SHOWS IN NEW YORK: Monmouth College, Tickets $3-4-5.

THROUGH THIS WEEK: At the Paper Mill Playhouse: "The Prime of Miss African Culture paintings, photos, books, etchings. Jean Brodie," starring Betsy Palmer. Tickets $5.95, Contemporary 4,95, 3,95, 2,95. Box Office DR 6-4343. Millburn, N.J 82nd Annual New Jersey State Fair. Special art Center. 2 Columbus Circle. exhibit (Painting and Photography, Trenton, N.J. Special Cup show, Witney Museum, through Oct. 26, Tuesday, Saturday, and Sunday: 10 to 4 p.m. and 2 Art Exhibit - Pottery by Bonnie Courtney, B.C. to 4 p.m. Princeton University Art Museum. NEW YORK NIGHT CLUBS AND STUFF: (this week-

Fillmore East - Country Joe and the Fish; Grateful Dead, Sha-na-na, Sept. 26 and 27, 8 and 11:30 p.m.; Tickets $3,50, 4,50, 5,50. Bitter End - John Sebastian, Shows from 9:30 to ll p.m. on Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays. At 9 p.m., 10:30, 12:00 on Fridays and Saturdays. Electric Circus - Catfish. Dancing on Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. the rest of the week

Drew dance with "The Strangers" U.C. Multipur- Village Vanguard - Sonny Rollins Quartet. Thad Jones and Mel Lewis Band on Mondays. Red Onions - Open every night from 9 to 3 or 4 a,m. Banjo and Piano music, 1586 Second Ave. and 82nd St.

West Boondock - "Soul Food," Open from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m. 114 10th Ave. and 17th St.

on with color by Dennis Byng. Sept. 28. Jackson at 32nd East and 69th St.

Chinese Art, Through Oct. 19th, New York Cultural

"Recent Acquisitions" and "Tapestries of the 15th Paintings by Lee Hall - White Gallery, 42 E 57 St.

THE MILROSE SHOP HEADQUARTERS FOR

Miss Wranglers

Denum 'n' Corduroy Slims 'n' Bells

52 MAIN ST. MADISON

Gerlach's Jewelers wishes you a successful year!

Opens next week, through 'Oct. 18.

Welcome back Drew students

Record review:

Ssssssh album changes the mind

by Dave Marsden

I first heard Ten Years After on the liner notes that "The ma- finale, "I Woke Up This Mornlast April at Fillmore Street. I jor problem of being Ten Years ing." This last thing has to be one first liked (or appreciated) Ten After has been to record an al- of the loudest ever recorded; Years After last Wednesday. Ac- burn." What he means is, like the Lee's frantically high-pitched tually I didn't give them much of Who, the group's early efforts riffs can be absolutely painful if a chance before that, and maybe have not transmitted the group's given half a chance. their earlier efforts rate more essence. But 'Ssssh.' succeeds The album, like I said before, than my ignorance of them. But in that it defines the group with is good. And that's coming from at the time there was still Cream dimension not only in their ma- someone who has not liked the and Traffic and the Stones and terial, but in their very musical group for a lot longer than he has Hendrix, and who needed another philosophy. It comes across well liked them. Engfish group, especially one who as a kind of controlled mayhem seemed to exist, or at least thrive (the dubbed cheering crowd in on swooning, ooing and aaahing Bad Scene, the occasional teeny-boppers thrilled to their-electronic attacks as well as up-for-grabs-musical scores by Lee's somewhat brutal assaults) Alvin Lee playing a very loud gui- built upon a hard rock blues tar on his knees, off his belt foundation. As in the case with buckle (or something in the gen- Creedance's Fogerty, Lee's lead eral vicinity) and sawing at it guitar and vocals produce a genuwith a drum stick and microphone ine rappaport between two modes stand. I lost interest that night of expression as they in turn reamidst the repetitive and loud inforce, substantiate, and comstraight forward chord progres- plete one another. Alvin may be sions and excited front section a bit of a show-off (like Peter cheerleaders. Weighted music is Towsend, and who would be so not heavy music, and TYA's insolent as to knock him for it? weight did not make them heavy. but he is also a prettygood guitin from somewhere, and I was out title of the song, and having sung Good Album is nothing to become it a few times and vocalized a few picky about. It works. riffs, out came "Ssssh..." by Ten Years After. So I didn't like the group. "I Woke Up This Morning" is a great performance, and next time one of those mornings wakes you up. Last Wednesday of the term "together." The was a bad day but at least Ten Years After was there. Too much small talk? Maybebut what do I know about writing album reviews? I do know a good album when I hear it, and "Ssssh" is one good album.

Given this much let us at the same time recognize that it not a GREAT album. It is not Disraeli Gears or Traffic or certainly not Tommy. There is a vast difference between a great album and a good album. Great albums are hard to talk about because they are just so very good. Good albums are so for a reason; usually because they sound good as an album; cut fit together and add to each other and because they accomplish their goal of establishing, the style, taste, and ability of the group.

But then in the middle of one arisi, vocalist, composer and long night last week some truly producer. His three companions wicked sounds came screaming are also more than adequate. the one line remembered was the tion for an analysis, but a really to hear sometimes during the

A few words about some cuts. "Two-Time Mama" is a nice little song. Very well contained. Important for a group that likes a necessity to have it around the to let it rip. 'Stoned Woman' demonstrates well the meaning group is together, and Lee's guitar and vocals are really together. A few electronic zaps move me. It was called "Down by the smoothly into J.L. Williamson's River' and was written by some-"Good Morning Little Schoolgirl," and a gusty version it is. A great headphone duet by Bassist

Lee Lyons and Alvin Lee. Side two is quick in that it progresses naturally from a gentle wah-wah guitar and chord organ structure ("If you Should Love Me") through some quiet acoustic guitar and piano ("P Don't Know That You Don't Know My

MADISON PHARMACY Phylamines 66 Main St. WE DELIVER

BINIBI

Get in the Picture

DISCOUNT RECORD AND

Madison Photo Shop

48 Main Street

Madison

STEREO TAPE DEPARTMENT

ALSO TAPE RECORDERS

377-0522

EVERYTHING PHOTOGRAPHIC

J.C. Fogerty is to CCR, explains "The Stomp" to that really great Alvin Lee, who is to TYA what Name') to a neat little job called

Mountain Felix Papalardi evidently with taste and feeling has recog-

-Satori on rock

At the Fillmore C, S, N, & Y show

They were really great. The It was about 15 minutes long and thing was beautiful. They did all in it that I have ever heard. Most the songs on their album (C.. of the runs you hear by musici-S., & N.) except Marrakesh Ex- ans get very boring, but with press and 49 Bye Byes. They Stills and Young alternating on did more acoustical stuff than guitar parts there was no repeelectric, but the electric was tition. It was fantastic. They longer so the time came out were well organized and knew just about the same. Young did just when to do everything. It "Broken Arrow" by himself and wasn't sloppy at all. The only he was fantastic. Stills did a trouble with the electrical part They too, like the album as a couple of solos. He is just too of the concert was, as I said, looking for a song. New Led Zep- whole, are good. This may seem much on guitar. The singing was that it was a little hard to hear pelin? Jeff Beck? No Fortuantely, to be a somewhat trite summa- superlative, although it was hard some of the singing. Some people said it was the electrical part of the concert. Nash & Crosby did "Guinnevere" to. Anyway, if you didn't go you competent. If you dug Cream, you and "Lady of the Island." The really missed a beautiful thing. might as well buy this album. harmony was just perfect. After one of the songs, Stills got up to go outside and Crosby said, 'Smoke one for me." & Most groups, when they go

> New location In the heart of Madison

Truback Florist FINE FLOWERS DISTINCTIVE GIFTS

electrical, lose their unity. These guys didn't lose a thing - they gained. One song really killed

80 MAIN STREET FRONTIER 7-5454

377-0075 - 0076

Campus Shell

M.C.A.

COMPLETE AUTOMOTIVE SERVICE TEL. 377-9855 - 2035

FREE PICK UP

2 purchases a month Road service free anywhere in Madison

ROAD SERVICE CLUB

PINES RO. & GREEN VILLAS MADISON, N. J. 07940

thinks that he has found himself nized Felix's talent and gotten a new superstar in the person him a regular job in a recordof Leslie West, ex-lead guitar- ing group. Produced by Mr. ist for the Vagrants, a New York Pappalardi, the group consists group that didn't make it after of Leslie West, guitar and vocal, about 19 years of trying. Fe- Felix Pappalardi, bass and keylix, long a studio musician and board, and N.D. Smart II, drums. producer, has finally made it Leslie West obviously spent many into the big time; a producer hours practicing guitar and vocal; he is a competent imitator of the Clapton style and a competent vocalist in the traditional Jack Bruce style, Since the bass lines necessary must fit in with the leads. Felix plays mostly Bruce-like riffs on the bass. Add a talented drummer who must also play something compatable with the overall sound, this record has a strong tendency to sound like rejected cuts from Disraeli Gears (a Pappa-

However, it's still nice to hear songs that might have been done if Cream stuck together. Keeping this in mind, "Blood of the ", "Dreams of Milk and Honey", and "Because you are my Friend" are interesting to listen to. The group does do some non-Cream material (e.g. "Long Red", "Storyteller Man) which best concert they'd ever been although not excellent, is at least lardi Production, by the way).

Sponsored by

MADISON BILLIARD LOUNGE No Entry fee

CASH PRIZES!!!

$50.00 -- $25.00 -- $15.00 -- $10.00

Games to be Played

Mon. Tues. Wed. nights at 10 p.m.

Bring the ENTRY BLANK TO BILLIARD LOUNGE AND GET FULL INFORMATION (Entries must be in by October 10)

MADISON BILLIARD LOUNGE

33 Kings Road, Madison

Mr. John Reeves, new director of physical education and all athletic matters, talks to the team during a workout scrimmage on Young Eield last week. Bringing the still experienced team through an unusually long exhibition season with a winning mark, Coach Reeves expects that "if nothing else, we'll be in better condition than the first couple of teams we play."

Soccer team ends strong exhibitions with 4-1-1 record

Behind a strong, driving offense and a stingy, hustling defense, the Drew soccer team blanked Monmouth, 5-0, in the last pre-season tune-up before tomorrow's first game of the season at Seton Hall. The game, played on the soccer pitch, Tuesday, boosted the Rangers final slate to 4-1-1. Stu Eidelson scored twice, and Trott, Arbuckle, and Morris each scored one goal,

After a loss and a tie in last Saturday's round-robin exhibition with Pratt and Pairleigh Dickinson-Madison, the varsity soccer team boasted a 3-1-1 record. The exhibition, which included an intermission clinic led by noted official Harry Nowick, was played on Drew's soccer pitch.

The exhibition consisted of three thirty-minute games, separated into two fifteen-minute halves by the intermission. In the three contests, Pratt topped FDU, 3-0, Drew tied Pratt, 2-2, and lost to FDU, 2-0. Pratt took an early 1-0 lead against Drew before wing Stu Eidelson centered a passed to forward Doug Trott, who booted in the score from a few feet out. Pratt tober 1. More members are welcome to either team, and support from the student body is Also forming in future months will be the modern dance club and the synchronized swimming group "Synchers," both of whom put on major performances in

All interested girls are urged always appreciated.

the spring semester.

to join these activities,

derway-field hockey, tennis, and tive seasons October 8 and Oc-

Bus to game

A spectator bus for Saturday's soccer game at Seton Hall in South Orange will leave the Baldwin gymnasium parking lot at 1:15 p.m. and return at approximately 4:15 p.m. Tickets for the trip are $1.00 per person.

scored once more before the half. In the second part of the contest, the Green and Gold held their opponent scoreless while Trott scored the second goal on a penalty kick.

Fairleigh blanked the Rangers, 2-0, scoring both goals in the first half. Drew, however, played much better ball in the second half. Coach John Reeves felt that the team showed an improvement from half-to-half and looked pleased at the second half performances.

In the three other pre-season scrimmages, Drew whipped Northeastern Bible Institute, 4-1, Newark College of Engineering, 4-1, and Paterson State 3-0. In the first two contests, Trott and Neil Arbuckle each scored two goals Trott, Jim Morris and Mark Arburust each cored a goal ir the Paterson game.

sports view

The patriarchs

As the baseball season draws to a close, the New York Mets are on a magical mystery tour to the top of the National League Eastern Division. Tom Seaver, the league's leading pitcher may be given some credit. Plaudits may be thrown in the way of Cleon Jones, the league's leading hitter, and to Tommie Agee, definitely Comeback Player of the Year. Jerry Koosman, Ken Boswell, Tug McGraw, Bud Harrelson, Art Shamsky, Ron Swoboda, and other participants in the "Miracle of Flushing Meadows" led by manager Gil Hodges, all helped the Mets in blowing the minds of baseball fans and Vegas odds-makers. But be these the real heroes of the 1969 Mets? Hardly.

As the builders of the Tacoma Straits Bridge once said, "A good foundation is the secret to a good job." Well, the Mets had a good fou...well anyway, they had a foundation—the 1962 New York Mets!

The 1962 Mets were a happy go-lucky bunch of misfits who mixed up Geritol with their Gatorade. The average age of the team was 32. The Mets escaped finishing eleventh only for the fact that there were ten teams in the N.L. Not that the New Yorkers were total flops—they won 40 of 162 games (.247) and were generally pretty funny. As manager Casey Stengel slept in the dugout, the Mets went through the motions of playing a game. Even that, at times, was difficult.

But stand proud, '62 Mets. Ed Bouchee, Jay Hook, 'Roadblock' Jones, Charley Neal, Ray Daviault, Duke Snider, Gil Hodges, Hobie Landrith, Harry Chiti, Frank Thomas, Richie Ashburn, B.G. Smith, Gene Woodling, Ed Kranepool, Gus Bell, Chico Fernandez, and Sammy Drake; be counted. You were the first—and thank God, the last. If there are any other 1962 Mets I failed to mention—I won't tell, if you don't.

Girl's teams in fall season cheerleading.

The cheerleaders have been chosen, and are now practicing both new and old cheers for the opening of the soccer season.

Cheerleaders perform at all home soccer and basketball games, in addition to many aw-

The field bockey and tennis teams began practicing last week for the opening of their respecay games in these sports.

Girls' sports teams are hoping this season will bring deserved success. Long practices are already underway, and "determination" was said by each group to be the spirit.

There are a variety of sports and athletics, both on individual and team bases, available to Drew girls. Presently three are un-

Delagarza urges Placement visits

Dr. C. O. Delagarza, director of the Placement Center, has announced that the Placement Center Brother's Hall Room 109 will be opened Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

He urges all seniors to drop by at their earliest opportunity to discuss their plans for employment after graduation and to complete a resume form, which will be placed on file for present and future reference.

Madison Yarn Shop

Needlepoint and Crewel

Ribbon - Buttons

Trimmings

40 KINGS ROAD MACISON

Straight lead stacks by Levid Farah
Sport
Jackets from juy league to the new Columntian look

body shirts

Locker
Room
Cook Plaza

Scented
Soaps
and 包含

pottery glass

Peddlers - Post

candy "And Such

Phone 377-7739

candles

72 Main Street, Madison

Don't Miss our ANNUAL BACK TO SCHOOL SALE

BRUSHES SAVI

MARKERS SAVE 20%

OSMIROID SKETCHPEN

SAVE 20%

Again our annual sale features discounts on those items which every student needs.

DRAFTING NATERIALS, INC.

233 Washington St. Newark, New Jersey 07102 (201) 642-5310

STORE HOURS:

9:00 a.m. - 5:45 p.m. Mon. thru Fri. 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Saturday Closed Sunday

Sale dates: NOW to Oct. 31, 1969