Description: Leaflets and pamphlets from 1836-2008 produced by or related to the United Methodist Church (U.S.), its Methodist-related antecedents, related faiths, or ecumenical groups. The majority of items are 20th century, spanning every decade. Included are materials from the Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Church (U.S.), and Methodist Church (Great Britain), as well as the evangelical traditions—United Brethren in Christ, Evangelical Church, Evangelical United Brethren Church, and the Holiness movement. Agency-specific communications account for a large number of items. Well-represented topics include international and American missions and missionary work, Christian education, higher education, ministerial training, worship, music, prayer, early childhood education, administration, finance and stewardship, social issues, including war and its aftermath, health and welfare, elder and child care, racism, ethnic minorities, urban and rural issues, volunteerism, youth programs. The collection contains many individually authored items; some historical tracts; poetry; non-English language items, predominantly in Spanish, but also in German, Korean, Japanese, and Chinese, and many more English-language items centered on countries and people throughout the world. A number of items include artwork and illustrations.

Note about the author(s): Lt. Col. Tom Chase McKenney, USMC (Ret.) is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He was an infantry officer and parachutist in the U.S. Marine Corps, serving in Korea and Vietnam. Retired in 1971 for disability incurred in Vietnam, he is a Bible teacher and writer, active in veterans' affairs and pro-family issues. A student of military history, he has contributed articles to such magazines as Guideposts, the American Legion Magazine, Military, and Leatherneck. His books and activism for veterans' issues have had him appearing on hundreds of radio and television programs including Fox News, the Today Show, and CBS Morning News." McKenney is married to the former Marty McKinney, a graduate of the University of Kentucky. While her life-long interest is in the realm of history and our unique American culture, she is also a researcher and speaker on education issues. In more recent years, her focus has been on misinterpreted and misused passages of the Bible in the post-modern era. She writes opinion / editorial articles, including "Marty's Corner" in The Good Word. Website active, as of 2014: <http://wordsforlivingministries.org/>
