

"The Christian Bible--and this is the first and absolutely unshakeable thing we know about it--emerges as and is considered to be the book of Christ. The 'scriptures of the Lord' bear witness to the Lord--the OT prophetically, the NT historically. Christ speaks in both testaments and is their real content. This alone makes it the Christian Bible, the book of the Christian church."