BROTHERS COLLEGE

19

The Eighteenth Amendment Speaks

ARRESTS FOR DRUNKENNESS IN MASSACHUSETTS

1926 80,771 Arrests

29

Av. 1912-17 108,123 Arrests

Per 1,000 Population

Per 1,000 Population

Population Per 1,000 Population
42,100 Fewer Arrests for Drunkenness in 1926 than if pre-Prohibition conditions had continued
THE SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE FEDERATION, BOSTON, MASS.

The Eighteenth Amendment Speaks

INTEMPERANCE BURDENS OF HOMES AND CHILDREN LIGHTENED

Proportion of Intemperance Cases

Mass. Society for Prevention of Cruelty 1926	to Children	1916
22.2%	47.7%
Boston Family Welfare Society
1926		1917
8. 6%		27%
Boston Provident Association
1926		Av. 1915-17
9.3%		15%

THE SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE FEDERATION, BOSTON, MASS.

BROTHERS COLLEGE

The Eighteenth Amendment Speaks

REDUCES ALCOHOLIC INSANITY

Persons Admitted to Hospitals for the Insane in the United States Whose Insanity Was Directly Due to Alcohol

1922 3.7%

10.1%

1910

5,577 Fewer Alcoholic Insane entered hospitals for insane in 1922 than would have entered had the 1910 rate continued

New Alcoholic Insane Admitted to Massachusetts State Hospitals

1926

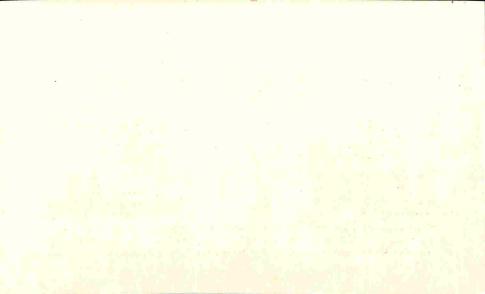

6.49%

10.3%

Av. 1912-1918

"The reduction has been brought about by a change in the habits of the people with respect to drinking and by the Eighteenth Amendment and laws prohibiting the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages."—U. S. Census Bureau.

THE SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE FEDERATION, BOSTON, MASS.

BROTHERS COLLEGE

The Eighteenth Amendment Speaks

14,640 LIVES SAVED FROM ALCOHOLIC DEATHS

Alcoholism Death-rates in the United States per Million Population
In 1925

Average 1910-1917

36 52

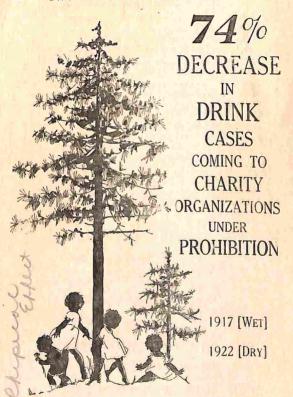

14,640 FEWER PEOPLE DIED of alcoholism in the first 6 Prohibition years than would have died had normal pre-Prohibition death-rates continued

Statistics of U. S. Census Bureau

THE SCIENTIFIC TEMPERANCE FEDERATION, BOSTON, MASS.

THE DIFFERENCE IN HEIGHT BETWEEN THESE TWO TREES REPRESENTS THE

THE AMERICAN ISSUE PUBLISHING COMPANY
WESTERVILLE, OHIO

Survey of the Effects of Prohibition on Family Welfare 74% AVERAGE DECREASE

In Drin's Cases Coming to Charity Organizations
Comparison:—1917 (wet)—1922 (dry)
ORGANIZATION % DECREASE

ORGANIZATION
St. Louis, Missouri-Provident Association	84.5
Chicago, Illinois-United Charities	69.9
Doston, Massachusetts—Family Wel.
fare Society*	72.6
Pawtucket, Rhode Island—Associated
Charities	82.4
Atlantic City, New Jersey-Welfare	, , ,
Bureau	81.4
Newport, Rhode Island—Charity Organization Society	46.7
Portland, Maine—Associated Charities.	97.4
Cleveland, Ohio-Associated Charities.	67.3
La Crosse, Wisconsin-Social Service
Society	88.3
New York City-Charity Organization
Society	68.8
Hartford, Connecticut-Charity Organ-	on 175
ization Society	92.0
ization SocietyWashington, D.C.—Associated Charities	71.7
Rochester, New York-Social Welfare
League	88.2
Providence, Rhode Island-Society for
Organizing Charity†	100.0
Organizing Charity† Newburyport, Massachusetts — Community Welfare Service	84.5
Plainfield, New Jersey-Charity Or-
ganization Society	72.2
Unnamed City, Wisconsin-Family
Union Society	77.7
Lexington, Kentucky-Associated Charities	79.5
Fitchburg, Massachusetts—Family Welfare Association	99.5
Haverhill, Massachusetts — Associated
Charities	39.0
Portland, Oregon-Public Welfare Bureau (increase)	60.3

^(*) Eight Months.
(†) Drink Important Factor.

Reprinted by permission of POSTER COMMITTEE
Boston Family Welfare Society,
43 Hawkins St., Boston, Mass.