MOUNT TABOR

ITS HISTORY AND PRESENT IMPORTANCE.
 Upon a thickly wooded hillside, within a stone's cast almost of the Camp Tabor Depot on the D., L. & W. Railroad, and yet completely obscured from the view of the railroad traveler, is Mount Tabor, the location of the annual camp meeting of the Newark Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a veritable city in the forest, where the people of this denomination enjoy the worship of God for a season each year, not exactly in the manner of the out door encampments of the fathers of this great church —who in its primitive days did not possess the auxiliaries of comfort to be found here—yet in a sensible and most appropriate way, uniting comfort and taste with their religious exercises.

ITS HISTORY
 is not an old one, for it is included within the compass of a few years, but it is a history of energy and enterprise that seems almost marvellous. From the Manual of the Association published in 1874 we glean the particulars of the institution of this remarkable encampment. "At the session of the Annual Conference held in Washington, N.
 J., in March, 1866, on motion of Rev. John Atkinson, a Committee was appointed to consider the expediency of holding a Conference Camp Meeting. The report of the Committee, resolving to hold such a meeting, appointing a Board of Managers and designating, as near as possible, the time and place, was adopted." The result of this was that for several years afterward Conference Camp meetings were held near Speedwell Lake, on the outskirts of Morristown. The last meeting held at that place was in 1868, and it and its predecessors had proved so successful that it was determined at a meeting held on the grounds, on the 31st of August in that year, of which the late Hon.
 Peter Smith was Chairman and Rev. N. Vansant Secretary, the subject of a permanent ground for Camp Meeting purposes was discussed and acted upon. Rev. Dr. J. T.
 Crane, Hon. Geo. F. Cobb and Ichabod Searing reported examinations which they had made of different sites, and a Committee, composed of Revs. J. T. Crane, C. S.
 Coit and Hon. Peter Searing, was appointed to consider the subject still further. This Committee at a subsequent meeting reported the following resolutions:

1. That we deem it important to the interests of Methodism in this Conference to purchase a permanent camp ground.
2. That the payment of twenty dollars or upward shall entitle the subscriber to the possession of a lot, provided that one-third of the whole number of lots be reserved unsold for renting.
3. That we proceed at once to raise, by subscription, an amount sufficient to secure such ground.
4. That the further details of a more perfect organization shall be left with a Board of Managers, to be composed of the following persons: George T. Cobb, Amos Hoagland, Joseph Gatchell, J. M. Tuttle, Peter Smith, J. B. Bassenger, I. Searing, J. V.
 Bentley, J. T. Crane, C. S. Coit, M. F. King, H. A. Buttz. Subscriptions being called for, eighty-nine shares were subscribed for.

On the 1st of September the Association adopted as its title, the following, determined by the Board of Managers: "The Camp Meeting Association of the Newark Conference of the M. E. Church." Messrs. Cobb, Tuttle and Searing were made a Committee to select a site, and Messrs. Crane, Tuttle and Cobb were made a Committee to secure an Act of Incorporation.

The selection of the grounds was made October 21st, 1868, the site chosen being the lands of Messrs. Dickerson, near Denville.
 On Friday, March 26th, 1869, the main tract of about thirty acres, twenty-eight acres of W. H. Dickerson, and two and a half acres of Nathaniel Dickerson, forming the original camp ground, together with certain privileges, having been secured, the following adjustment of officers was made by lot:

- To hold office until the first annual meeting: Joseph Gatchell, Milton T. King, Amos Hoagland, C. S. Coit.
- To hold office until the second annual meeting: Peter Smith, I. Searing, J. T.
 Crane, H. A. Buttz.
- To hold office until the third election: George T. Cobb, J. V. Bentley, J. B. Bassenger, J. M. Tuttle.

The following elections were then made:
 President, G. T. Cobb; Secretary, J. V.
 Bentley, Treasurer, J. M. Tuttle.
 On April 2d, 1869, the work of laying out grounds and plan of encampment, building preacher's house and stand and water works, and making necessary arrangements for holding the first camp meeting was provided for.

The first camp meeting was held in that year beginning August 23d, and continuing to September 1st. It was conducted by Rev.
 Dr. John S. Porter and proved a season of interest and power. Prior to this meeting the Tabernacle had been erected, but those who attended the meeting took up their abodes in temporary tents, and it is doubtful if even the most sanguine ones present at that meeting anticipated that a miniature city would be built up in these woods within the brief period of eight years. From that time to the present meetings have been held regularly every year, the Superintendents of which have been as follows:

- 1869—Rev. John S. Porter, D. D.
- 1870—The Presiding Elders: J. T. Crane, A. L. Brice, James Ayers, M. E. Ellison, N. Vansant.
- 1871—The Presiding Elders: the same.
- 1872—A. L. Brice, Associate, M. E. Ellison.
- 1873—L. R. Dunn, C. S. Coit, J. R.
 Bryan.
- 1874—A. L. Brice, N. Vansant.
- 1875—A. L. Brice, N. Vansant.
- 1876—R. L. Dashiell, D. D., D. W. Bartine, D. D.
- 1877—R. L. Dashiell, D. D., R. Vanhorne.

During the first year the receipts from sales of lots and other sources was $9,601.48.
 The meeting of 1870, from August 16th to August 26th, was also a most successful one, and was marked by a new departure, the building of two cottages, one by Hon.
 Peter Smith, of Waterloo, and the other by J. Tommaselli, of Elizabeth. Both were plain but comfortable cottages, not at all to be compared with some of the ornate structures now to be seen upon the grounds, but they awakened considerable interest at the time, and laid the foundation for the great improvements that have since been made in that direction.

At this meeting the death of Hon. Geo. T.
 Cobb, President of the Association, which occurred August 6th, 1870, was announced and memorial services were held. The next President of the Association, Ichabod Searing, Esq., of Morristown, died February 9th, 1873.

In May, 1872, the purchase of the adjoining farm of about one hundred acres was effected at a cost of $10,000, and a donation of $1,000 from the D., L. & W. R. R. was acknowledged. Improvements were at once commenced upon the new property, prominent among which was the laying out of a fine park. Since then the work of improvement has gone steadily forward at a pace that has been remarkable, till now a personal visit is necessary to obtain an adequate idea of the beauty and splendid proportions of this encampment.

The present Board of Trustees is composed as follows:
 David Campbell, President; J. N. Fitzgerald, Secretary; J. M. Bonsall, Treasurer; R. Vanhorne, J. M. Tuttle, C. S. Coit, G. W.
 Labaw, J. B. Bassinger, A. L. Brice, Abram Klotz, J. S. Richardson, and S. T. Smith.
 The Chairmen of the principal Committees are as follows:
 Executive—D. Campbell.
 Finance—R. Vanhorne.
 Tents—C. S. Coit.
 Lodging—R. Vanhorne.

MOUNT TABOR AT PRESENT
 possesses almost everything to be desired in a place of Summer residence. Located near the junction of the main line of the M. & E.
 Division of the D., L. & W. Railroad, with the Boonton branch of the same, it is easy of access to the various parts of the Conference.
 Its elevation being six or seven hundred feet above the level of the sea the air is pure and invigorating, and the thick growth of chestnut trees that tower far above the cottages make its shade delightful to the sun-scorched resident of the town or city who is fortunate enough to enjoy here a brief respite from toil and the cares of business life. Its water is excellent and there is every facility afforded for rest and genuine pleasure. Fully equal to these advantages are the many derived from the association of religious people.
 There is not to be found here the tinsel and show of the ordinary summer resort, or the vulgarity there to be seen, in those whose depraved tastes evince only the fact that they have acquired wealth and desire to avail themselves of the most glaring method of showing it.
 But because those here do not go to the extreme limits of the fashionable world at Summer rendezvous it must not be supposed they are lacking in culture or refinement. A glance at the tastefully adorned cottages, a review of the intelligent faces, or one hour spent in social converse with any of the cot-tagers, would at once refute such an argument, and convince any that Mt. Tabor is a temporary home for the intelligent and pious, who congregate here for the benefit of health, and for mental and religious improvement. There are now

JUST ONE HUNDRED COTTAGES upon the grounds. Those first erected were plain, unpretentious structures, contrived solely for comfort and rest, and not with a view to ornamentation. But as they began to increase after several years, some ambitious ones, with a taste for architectural beauty, began to improve upon their neighbors in the exterior appearance and interior arrangements of their dwellings, and this pleasant rivalry has continued to the present, the result of which is that many elegant villas now adorn the grounds, causing many of the original builders to engage in extensive remodelings in order to keep pace with their progressive brethren.

THE GROUNDS
 are laid out in a manner that adds greatly to the appearance of the encampment, being in most instances fine, well kept avenues, leading in all directions and making every part of the grounds easily accessible. In the naming of these avenues the founders and promoters of this great denomination have been held in grateful remembrance, and the names of Wesley, Embury, Asbury, James, Morris, Simpson and others equally familiar, greet the eye upon the sign boards at the corners.

The centre of attraction is Trinity Park, more commonly termed because of its form,
 "The Circle," on the northern side of which is the spacious "Tabernacle," built in the first season. It is a spacious edifice, the first floor of which is devoted to office rooms for the officers. The second floor is used for the purposes of a dormitory and will accommodate about 50 lodgers. The basement is occupied by the family of Mr. E. B. Earles, the efficient Steward of the grounds. On the South side of the building is a preacher's stand, altar and auditorium, covered with a broad roof supported by pillars. Stretching out in front of this and gradually rising as it recedes, is a tree-gemmed circle of benches, affording room for thousands of people to hear the exercises, at the same time protected by the shade of trees. Surrounding this circle and fronting upon it from every direction are a number of cottages, including some of the finest upon the grounds. Upon the East and West sides are two beautiful prayer pavilions, one called "Bethel" and the other "Ebenezer," which were built in 1873. At the south end is a beautiful basin and fountain. When a public service is being conducted at this place in the evening one of the grandest sights imaginable is presented.
 The songs of praise resounding through the trees, the earnest pleadings with sinners to come to Christ, the bowing of strong hearts to the rightful sovereignty of the Master, and the fitful gleams of the lights over all, form a scene indescribably impressive. Every day is well spent in exercises—there being preaching services morning, afternoon and evening, besides meetings for prayer, experience, etc., in the pavilions and at different cottages. Into the spirit of these all seem to enter heartily, and the result must be that all are lifted to a higher plane of religious life by reason of their participation in them.

THE FACILITIES
 of the grounds are unsurpassed by those of any similar encampment. From a reservoir twelve feet deep and twelve feet in diameter, located on the upper part of the premises, the cottages and public places are supplied with the purest water conducted to them through pipes. On the lower part of the premises is a commodious house where gas is generated and sent to all quarters in a similar manner. In these two respects, particularly, this little city in the forest is far ahead of some towns we know of much greater proportions and pretensions. A new reservoir of much larger dimensions has been commenced on the new ground, which when completed will add greatly to the water facilities. The ice house is stored with one hundred tons of pure ice, and straw and stabling for horses can be procured in the barn above it. Then there is a police headquarters, over the arrangements of which Maj.
 Samuel Klotz, of Newark, presides, and will guarantee the perpetuation of the good order of the past. In this building are also a post office and telegraph office and quarters for the safe keeping of offenders. A little further, on Simpson avenue, is the general store, the keeper of which is Mr. John Arndt, of Dover, who, although he enjoys a monopoly of the business done in his line, is yet so reasonable in his dealings, that all commend his way of doing business by giving him their patronage. Over this store are lodgings for about sixteen persons. Adjoining is the refreshment tent, kept by W. F.
 Day, of Morristown, one of the most successful caterers in his line in the State. Next to this is the "Campbell House," so named in honor of the President of the Association, which was built in twenty days by Mr. S. M.
 Mattox, of Rockaway, was opened August 1st by Mr. Isaac Parcells, of Morristown, the proprietor, and will be kept during this meeting on the European plan, enabling visitors to procure what they want and pay

Mt. Tabor Daily Record.

JOHN S. GIBSON, Editor.

Published by BENJ. H. VOGT, at the Office of The Iron Era, Dover, N. J.

Thursday, August 16th, 1877.

Good Morning.

With mingled feelings of pleasure and fear we make our first morning bow to our friends at Mount Tabor. We are pleased that our humble project has met with such a favorable reception on all sides, and that it is our happy lot to be associated with the people here for some days to come, and are fearful that our poor abilities may not meet the anticipations of the many who have so kindly befriended us. The latter, however, shall not be the case if an honest effort can prevent it. It is our purpose in the Record to note briefly the exercises of each day, to write up the features of note and events as they occur upon the camp grounds, and to give a resume of the local occurrences in this section. Did we rely upon our own efforts solely, our hope of success would be indeed small. We trust, instead, that all interested in the paper will give it a helping hand, by sending us contributions upon any subject connected with the grounds, or by informing us of events as they occur. To any who will aid us in either way we will feel deeply grateful, and with such assistance this paper will be made a pleasant feature of the meeting.

Camp Ground Items.

Rev. Dr. Sims, of Brooklyn, is expected to preach on Friday morning.

For the time table of the arrival and departure of trains see advertisement of Wright & Heint.

Excursion tickets, from Dover to the Camp Ground and return, are being sold for 30 cents each.

Rev. Dr. J. T. Crane will preach at the opening service of the Camp Meeting, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to-day.

If you have a cottage to sell, or want to buy one, let the people know it through the columns of the Record.

The Advertisers in the Record represent only first-class business firms, who are in every way worthy the patronage of the people.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered on the grounds last Sabbath morning. Rev. A. Craig preached in the evening.

Send the Record to your friends at a distance. Thirty-five cents and the address left with the editor, will relieve you of any trouble in so doing.

Denizens of the Camp Ground find "food for reflection" in the fact that Morris County preachers may be had in abundance before the meeting closes.

Among the distinguished visitors expected at the meeting this year are Bishops Foster and Simpson, Rev. Mr. Thompson of the South American Mission, and Rev. Dr. Reid.

About one thousand camp ground tickets were sold in Dover last year. The special train to be run from Port Oram in the evening will give us a good opportunity this year for attending the evening services.

During the eight years of the existence of the Camp Grounds no less than four members of the Board of Trustees have passed to their eternal rest—Hon. George T. Cobb, Ichabod Searing, Rev. R. B. Yard and Hon. Peter Smith.

It gives us pleasure to note that the Mt. Hope choir, which gave such satisfaction in a similar capacity two years ago, will again lead the singing at the public services this year, and will be accompanied by three brass instruments.

We would like to name the cottage possessing the most tastily ornamented surroundings, but because so many have made unusually great exertions in this direction, and in consideration of the many ladies interested (particularly the latter reason) we dare not.

The united brass bands of Mt. Hope and Rockaway visited the encampment on Saturday evening last, and favored the residents with some very fine selections of music. In return for their kindness they were hospitably entertained by the families of Messrs. Allison, Arndt, and Richardson, Dr. Stickle, Revs. Craig, Coit, Tuttle, and other cottagers.

At some time during the meeting a memorial service will be held in honor of the late Hon. Peter Smith, of Sussex, one of the projectors of this grand enterprise, and a faithful worker in promoting the interests of the Newark M. E. Conference. In his public as well as private life he delighted to honor the Master he served, and occupied no equivocal position before his fellow men. It is fitting then that those upon whom his labors have conferred so much benefit and enjoyment should show their gratitude for them by this beautiful and appropriate tribute.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

There are just one hundred cottages on the grounds.

Mr. Seymour B. Smith is erecting a fine residence at Waterloo.

The High Bridge road is carrying about 500 tons of ore per day.

The new Presbyterian Church at Morris Plains is nearly completed.

The Sunday Schools of Stanhope talk of holding a union picnic soon.

An excursion from Vienna, Warren county, visited Budd's Lake last Friday.

J. B. Varick, grocer, and Mrs. Scott, dry goods, of Morristown, have failed.

Dr. S. B. Johnson and Andrew and David Baker are camping at Budd's Lake.

The Morris County Jail contains 37 prisoners, two of whom are charged with murder.

Rev. T. C. Mayham and family, of Stanhope, are spending this week at Ocean Grove.

Mr. J. C. Buck, of Succasunna, has our thanks for a club of subscribers to the Record.

Mr. Fred. Leport and a party of Newton friends are preparing to encamp at Lake Hopateong.

The Mount Tabor Daily Record will be for sale each day at the news store of S. H. Breese, Dover.

Mr. R. B. Watters, long a successful restaurateur, of Dover, has taken the South Stanhope hotel.

The State Fish Commissioners have a large number of young black bass on hand ready for distribution.

A horse purchased at the late auction of J. E. Foote, of Morristown, for $230, has since been sold for $800.

The total eclipse of the moon on Thursday, the 23d, partly visible here, begins at 4:23 and ends at 8:04, P. M.

The Bessemer Steel Works, at Bethlehem, resumed work yesterday morning, after being idle about ten days.

Car shop employees aver that a painter in that institution went to Kansas and returned in one afternoon last week.

Mr. Chas. F. Gage has gone West to prospect for a location. The best wishes of all our people will go with him.

Messrs. Fred. H. Beach, Will Richards and C. L. Leport are about starting for Canarsie to make a raid on the blue fish.

The excursion of the Morristown M. E. Sabbath School, to the Delaware Water Gap, has been postponed till after camp meeting.

A Praise Meeting, conducted by Prof. H. J. Rudd, of Newton, will be held in the church at Pleasant Grove on Sunday evening.

Protection Hook and Ladder Company's Library now numbers over one hundred and fifty volumes, most of them excellent works.

Rev. S. B. Rooney, of the Blackwell street M. E. Church, has returned from Ocean Grove, and will occupy his pulpit on Sunday.

A lawn party and fair will be held at Budd's Lake on Friday and Saturday for the benefit of Mrs. Van Pelt's Home for Incurables at Madison.

Mr. Wm. J. Cooper, the Morristown grocer, had 45 pounds of cholera morbus encased in the rind of one water melon in his store last week.

Dr. Thos. Darling, a prominent physician of Easton, died in that place on Tuesday of last week, in the 70th year of his age. He was a native of Morristown.

The Durham iron works are manufacturing on an average 400 tons of pig iron in a week, but the demand is so great that they could sell more if they had a supply on hand.

A grand excursion to Rockaway Beach under the direction of Jarret & Palmer, by way of the Central Railroad and steamer Plymouth Rock, will leave Port Oram, on Friday morning.

During the thunder shower Tuesday afternoon a small barn at Milton, belonging to Simon Misel, was struck by lightning. About three tons of hay was in the barn. All was entirely consumed.

The Good Templars of Port Oram will present the temperance drama of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," in Miners' and Mechanics' Hall, next Monday evening. Admission—adults, 15 cents; children, 10 cents.

The policy holders in this section of the New Jersey Mutual Life Insurance Company will be pleased to learn that the settling up of the company is now going steadily forward. The policies are now being valued, and in a short time notice will be issued fixing the time within which policy holders may establish their claims.

The railroad taxation appeal was continued before Judge Depue, in the Newark Supreme Court, last Friday. The first case considered was the Montclair and Greenwood Lake, which was reduced from $943,000 to $595,000. The Longwood Valley road, assessed at $417,741.97, and the High Bridge road, assessed at $985,024.66, were each reduced one-half. South Branch road was assessed $441,868.77.

Mr. Lewis Davenport, while working in a meadow near Brown's Hotel, New Foundland, very narrowly escaped being shot by a number of city boarders who were engaged in target shooting. A ball passed through the top of his hat.

A single grain of rye on the farm of Mr. J. O. Hedges, of Columbia, in this County, this season produced 130 stalks and 5,017 kernels of grain by actual count. That was the most ambitious kernel of grain we ever heard of.—Jerseyman.

The picnic of the ladies of Esther Rebekah Degree Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Tuesday, and the picnic of St. Mary's Church, yesterday, were both prevented by the rain from being held, and will probably take place some time in the near future.

Our readers will remember the case of Mary Tobin, a servant girl, whose mother some time since attempted to take her from the residence of Mrs. Craig, of Baskingridge. Judge Dalrymple decided last week that she might go with whom she chose.

Roxbury Lodge of Good Templars, of Succasunna, will make an excursion to Budd's Lake, on Thursday, 23d. They will go in wagons and wear their regalia. The M. E. Sunday School of that place made a very pleasant excursion to Budd's Lake on Wednesday of last week.

Four tramps, Swedes, were arrested in Dover by Marshal Kelley last Saturday night. They had made a brush fence along West Blackwell street, and were charged with taking parcels from children. Judge Wood on Sunday morning fined them $3 each and ordered them to leave town.

Judge Wood, the agent, has already adjusted and paid the losses sustained by the recent fire. Mr. Paulmier had an insurance of $1,000 in the Hudson and Mr. Tredwin had $800 in the State, and $1,500 in the Lancashire. This prompt action is the best advertisement these companies could offer.

Iron Notes.

The Engineering and Mining Journal says last week of American pig:

The furnaces on the Lehigh are again receiving their usual supply of coal with no indications that there will be further immediate difficulty with the miners, although there are a few disaffected ones in the Lehigh regions. Makers show a great inclination to sell again. We only learn of 500 tons of Nos. 1 and 2 foundry iron sold on private terms. The consumption of iron at the present time is very much reduced. Prices have not been strengthened by the strikes. We quote No. 1 foundry at $18@19; No. 2, $17@18, and forge, $16@17.

for that only. The building is seventy feet long by thirty-five feet front and the first floor is provided with tables and chairs sufficient to allow 200 persons to eat at one time. The upper story is provided with cots, well furnished sleeping apartments for the accommodation of about forty persons. Lyon's double boarding cottage and tent come next, where there is ample room for the accommodation of many visitors, who will be provided with good meals and comfortable beds in which to sleep. Besides these are furniture tent, kept by John R. Sutton, and a barber shop kept by Wm. Becker, Jr. both of Morristown.

THE IMPROVEMENTS THIS YEAR have been many and of a first-class order, the principal one being the Campbell House above noted, which had long been needed, and when completed was celebrated by a collation given to those engaged in building it. New cottages have also been erected since the last meeting for the following persons: M. S. Allison, of Jersey City; Thos. James, of New York; Rev. J. N. Fitzgerald; Rev. A. L. Brice, and W. Smith, of Newark; A. Vreeland, of Paterson; Rev. Thos. H. Smith, of Newton; Mrs. Felch of Morristown, and Rev. G. W. Dickinson. All of these are very fine edifices of their kind, but the first three named are of such elegant proportions and convenient arrangements, that the word cottage does not seem to apply to them at all; they are really beautiful residences. Besides these Dr. J. P. Stickle and John W. Stephens, of Newark, have so completely remodeled their cottages that they may almost be termed new.

In noting the improvements we must not forget the work done by the ladies. Many of them have been busy for weeks past and their deft hands have arranged many farms of beauty about their cottages, which add more than a little to the charming appearance of Mount Tabor. Their handiwork may be seen in beautiful baskets upon the porches, in fairy forms of vines depending from the balconies, in rockeries, ferneries and many other designs "too numerous to mention." Rocks, and stumps of trees, and all else that have come under their touch have been made beautiful by floral adornment.

THE PROSPECT. of success for the present meeting is certainly flattering. The cottagers this year began coming to the grounds unusually early in the season, and a majority of the cottages were filled weeks in advance of the usual time. The Centennial Exposition, which last year attracted so many who otherwise would have come here, is also a thing of the past, and will not interfere this season. The prospects are that the present meeting will be largely attended and that a time of refreshing will be had in waiting upon the Lord.

Common Council Proceedings. The July meeting of the Dover Common Council was held on Monday evening. Present—Mayor Richards, Recorder Crittenden, Aldermen Beach and Hance and Councilmen Felver and Bennett. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A memorial was presented from Protection Hook and Ladder Company, asking for the appointment of an Assistant Chief Engineer for the Fire Department, and recommending Wm. T. Lepore as a suitable person for the position.

A petition was received from a number of residents of Morris Street and others in the vicinity asking the Council to take measures to secure the laying of a sidewalk on the west side of Morris Street from the railroad crossing to the house of Mrs. Jones. Referred to Street Committee with instructions to investigate and report at next meeting.

It being represented by the Fire Committee that another hose jumper and a coal cart were needed for the fire department the same Committee was authorized to procure them, at a cost not exceeding $75.

The following bills were presented, referred to Finance Committee, reported correct and ordered paid: Pay Roll for July, $30.62; Vought & Killgore, $3.50; Jas. P. Kelley, Marshal, $41.67; P. Corcoran, Janitor, $5.

The salary of the Marshal was fixed at $50 per month. Council adjourned to meet August 20th.

A Big Hog Story. The following, from the Hackettstown Gazette, is rich:

Mr. Thomas Shields, of Beattystown, has three hogs, either of which will weigh seven hundred pounds, or the three together will weigh 22,000 pounds, and some good judges say they will reach 24,000 pounds. We will venture to say that they cannot be equaled in the State.

We will venture further than that and guarantee that they cannot be equaled by any hogs in the world. From eleven to twelve tons of pork done up in three animals is not at all common. Rated at the modest sum of five cents per pound they would bring their owner from $1,100 to $2,200. Hitherto we have thought Warren County fish stories were pretty large, and we know now that their hog stories are immense.

Fireman's Elections.

The annual elections of the different companies of the Dover Fire Department were held on Monday evening with the following results:

Explanatory.

MR. EDITOR:—Your notice, referring to the fortunately harmless episode of escape, &c., of Mr. Stephen Lyon, of Middle Forge, (while laboring under temporary derangement—the effects of severe pain combined no doubt with the natural result of necessary medical remedies) requires some correction. Inasmuch as the fact of his straying so far as he did to Longwood Valley, &c., was entirely owing to the absence of the flock of "chasing neighbors" your account refers to. Such "neighbors" all declining his anxious wife could find none to follow him until she arrived on foot at Denmark, from whence his friends started on his track, to find him quietly wandering in Longwood Valley, glad to meet his friends and return with them. In his fevered ideas a party of strikers were after him; but his mind soon recovered its balance on return to his home, where he is suffering greatly though entirely recovered from the temporary mental disturbance.

THE QUARREL.

There had been quite a lively discussion Between Mr. X. and his wife, And—alas, that my pen should record it!
The argument ended in strife.
So the once loving pair were divided,
And each thought the other unkind,
And proudly the stray thought derided
That both might, perhaps, have been blind.

Mrs. X. had entrolled all the fashions, Declared they were "perfectly sweet,"
The while she examined the prices Set forth in her favorite sheet.
Mr. X.—perhaps fearful his pocket Would suffer from feelings like these—Responded with ridicule ready,
And far too much justice to please.

The lady replied with great spirit,
Defending herself and her sex,
Declaring they never did merit
The comments men made just to vex.
Then she hinted that some men were narrow,
And bated to share with a wife;
That they thought she might do with a little,
And cut and contrive all her life.

To which he replied, somewhat nettled,
That women were never content
With sharing—'twas long ago settled That on gaining the whole they were bent.
There was never a bound to their wishes,
One granted, on came twenty more Just as urgent and just as expensive
As those they had pleaded before.

"O now, Mr. X.," cried the lady,
"You're proving what I have just said;
You're always with ridicule ready
To pour on my innocent head.
If ever I ask for a bonnet,
Or hint that I want a new dress, You're always so terribly solemn
'Tis plain the thought gives you distress."

"And I'm not an extravagant woman!
Just look at what other folks wear!
I declare, you are almost inhuman
To talk—as you have. I declare,
If I'd married that judge who wooed me,
And whom I gave up all for you,
I might have bonnets and dresses,
And diamonds, too, not a few!"

"Well, madam, since you seem to regret him—
He was ugly, and old, and morose—
I am sure that I wish you had had him
To give you your diamonds and clothes.
It is plain that you value your husband
For his money more than his love,
And esteem the gay baubles of fashion
A lifelong devotion above."

Too angry to answer, the lady Sat silent, pretending to read,
While her husband picked up the day's paper
And seemed all its items to heed.
With faces turned away from each other,
They sat thus in silence an hour,
And then each began to discover That love had not lost all its power.

She thought—"I'm so sorry I said that About rich Judge Blank—the old bore!
I'd rather have Frank with a dollar Than him with a million, or more."
He thought—"I was cruel to speak so To Jennie, my dear little wife;
I'm proud of her grace and her beauty,
Her love is the joy of my life."

But pride kept them both from confession
A little while longer—and then Mrs. X., with a winning expression, Said—"Frank, most provoking of men,
How long are going to be angry?
I was wrong." "No," said he, "It was I,"
And the handclasp and kiss that quick followed
Cleared the last cloud from loves sunny sky.

At the Chautauqua Church Congress, a few days ago, John B. Gough and Francis Murphy met for the first time, and both made speeches. The same day the police authorities of the place captured a lot of contraband whiskey, which some irreligious young sinners had smuggled into camp. There were two or three dozen bottles packed in a large case. A council was held over it, the result of which was the determination that it should be buried publicly.
So it was brought on the platform, where Gough and Murphy appeared, both in their shirt sleeves, and Murphy with a shovel on his shoulder. Gough delivered a funeral oration over the whiskey, then drew down a bottle of it, which Murphy smashed with the shovel.
Then they dug a grave in the rear of the platform, and buried the whole lot, first breaking all the bottles. The proceedings were witnessed and cheered by a crowd of over 7,000 persons.

REBUKING AN IDIOT.—A clergyman was recently annoyed by people talking and giggling in church. He paused, looking at the guilty parties, and said:
"I am always afraid to reprove those who misbehave, for this reason: Some years since, as I was preaching, a young man who sat before me was constantly laughing and making uncouth grimaces.
I paused and administered a severe rebuke. At the close of the service a gentleman said to me: 'Sir, you have made a great mistake; that man is an idiot.' Since that I have always been afraid to reprove those who misbehave themselves in the chapel lest I should repeat that mistake and reprove an idiot." During the rest of the service there was good order.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

The day for fabulous prices in organs, pianos, sewing machines, and kindred articles has passed away and a healthy trade is being built up by various houses in those articles upon the new basis.

Prominent among the piano and organ establishments who have kindly taken to the new order of things is DANIEL F. BEATTY, of Washington, N. J. Realizing the fact that the quality of the instruments must be kept up to the standard of higher prices he turns out nothing but the best work and warrants all his instruments for six years, and ships on a test trial from 5 to 15 days, the same as before the reductions. Any person wishing to buy would do well to either write or call on Mr. Beatty and ascertain his manner of conducting business. All his business is conducted strictly upon a cash basis, and his reductions have been greater and his success greater than any house in the trade.

The following testimonials speak volumes for the integrity of the man and the value of his instruments. For any further information address him for his Illustrated Piano and Organ Advertiser, containing full descriptions of of the various instruments, and testimonials of thousands who are using them.

(From Rev. Lewis B. Dunn, D. D.)

July 5, 1877.
After having visited the establishment of Mr.
Daniel F. Beatty, learned his method of business, and listened to some of his instruments, I am satisfied that he is every way worthy of the confidence of the community, and that his instruments will compare favorably with those of the best manufacturers.

LEWIS B. DUNN,
Pastor Halsey St. M. E. Church,
Newark, N. J.

Office of First National Bank
WASHINGTON, N. J., June 26th, 1877.
Mr. DANIEL F. BEATTY—Dear Sir: The Beatty Piano I purchased of you gives the most perfect satisfaction in every respect, after being thoroughly tested. Its tone is exceedingly fine and particularly clear and distinct, which is equalled only by the elegance of its case. We are all highly delighted with it, and I should consider it very unaccountable if I did not commend you to the public as an honorable business man—as I have always found you to be—after receiving such a superior instrument.
P. H. HANN, Cashier.

E. Parsons, Esq., Brookville, Kansas, says:
The Piano we find all that fancy painted and you promised: the instrument is handsome and its tone is pure and full; I see no reason why, with ordinary care, it may not last a lifetime.
Those, who like me, cannot afford to pay from five hundred to a thousand dollars for a name, will, I am sure, thank you for saving them the exorbitant profits of dealers in general, and making it possible for any industrious man or woman to be the possessor of a first-class Organ or Piano.

From Mrs. E. L. Rhodes, Eufala, Ala.: Organ has arrived and I am very much pleased with it; in tone and workmanship it cannot be surpassed.

John Fletcher, Esq., Little Rock, Ark., says: After a thorough test trial the Piano which you sent me has proven perfectly satisfactory.

From Daniel Sewell, Sonora, Cal.: The organ received six months since gives entire satisfaction—the more we use it the better we like it. All disinterested persons say my organ is the best in Sonora or vicinity.

"Resolved—That we, the members of the Christian Sunday School at Warrensburg, Mo., tender to Daniel F. Beatty our thanks, not only for the honest and liberal manner he has dealt with us, but for the superiority of the organ sold our school, and that we take great pleasure in recommending him as an upright dealer and the excellency of his instruments."
M. SHRYACK, Superintendent.
